

SUTHERLIN W. C. T. U.
BANQUETS FRIENDS.

Delightful Evening Entertainment—
Roseburgers Were Present—
Excellent Speeches.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Sutherlin, on last evening, entertained friends at a banquet. Those present from out of the city were Mrs. M. and Mrs. L. N. Fox, of Oakland; Hon. and Mrs. B. L. Eddy, and Mrs. and Mrs. A. C. Marsters, of Roseburg. An informal reception was held in the Smith hall at eight o'clock. Patriotic songs were sung, after which the large number of guests were seated at the beautifully spread tables, which were profusely decorated with sweet peas, and loaded with choice delicacies, to which the guests did ample justice. After an hour's feasting and pleasant conversation, the president of the W. C. T. U., Mrs. M. E. French, rapped for attention and announced that Mr. Strong would act as toastmaster of the evening, which duty he performed in a most gracious and pleasing manner. After well chosen remarks, he called on Mayor Phillips, who extended a kind and cordial welcome to the guests of the evening and paid a high compliment to the ladies of the union, and briefly discussed the subject at issue. He was followed by Mr. Sack, of the Sutherlin State Bank, who spoke at some length. He stated that he had been attracted to Sutherlin on account of the temperance sentiment prevailing, that he had been informed that Douglas county was dry territory and would probably remain such. He had hoped the questions would not again come to issue, as he felt he could not and would not make his home in a community controlled by the saloon element. Mr. Sack's words were forceful and potent.

Remarks by others were appropriate and fitting, showing an appreciation for the work being done by the ladies. Hon. A. C. Marsters, of Roseburg, was then called and made a few brief remarks from the view-point of a business man. He showed that the real prosperity of any community was not measured or enhanced by the number of saloons or the quantity of liquor consumed, that it took the more substantial industries to bring prosperity; that business and booze could not long keep company; that you must either cut out booze, or booze will divorce your business.

County President Mrs. Marsters was asked for a word. She made a strong and earnest plea for the protection of the home and our boys and girls. Showed the drunkard as the saloon's product and the boy the raw material.

The speaker of the evening, Hon. B. L. Eddy, was introduced by the toastmaster, who spoke in his usual forceful and earnest manner. He laid bare the sophistry of those who palliate the evil by license regulation. He showed by strong and convincing citations there was more violation of the liquor laws in license territory than in prohibited territory, and called attention to Governor West's actions in closing disreputable resorts in Multnomah county and recently compelling the resignation of the mayor of Huntington in the ram-soaked, wide-open Baker county, and not in a single instance had the governor been forced to take action against violators of liquor laws in dry territory. Mr. Eddy's address was a strong, forceful and logical arraignment of the liquor traffic. He showed that a strong and forceful organization had placed liquor above principle, dollars above good government, sober citizenship, righteousness and human souls. Mr. Eddy's logical and forceful address was enthusiastically applauded.

All joined in singing America, and with many appreciative words for the ladies who had prepared such a delightful evening's entertainment, and at a late hour the people were loath to leave. Those who were privileged to attend will ever have a word of praise to the ladies of the W. C. T. U. and may their noble efforts be ever crowned with success.

SOME TARIFF STATISTICS.
New Tariff Law Has Worked Well According To Bureau of Statistics.

WASHINGTON, August 8.—Some tariff statistics which President Taft's friends are to use in the coming campaign in his defense of the Payne-Aldrich tariff law have just been compiled by the bureau of statistics.

Up to June 30, the end of the fiscal year, the Payne law had been in operation just 35 months, which happens to be the total period of the operation of the Wilson law. The figures show that whereas merchandise to the value of 39.9 millions of dollars came in absolutely duty free under the Wilson law, 67.7 millions is the total for the Payne law in the same period.

The per cent of importations that came in free under the Wilson act was 48.8, under the Payne 51.2. The average rate of ad valorem duty under the Payne law is 41.2, under the Wilson 42.8. The average amount of revenue from customs receipts per month under the Payne law has been 26.5. Under the Wilson law it was 13.9.

STRANGER WALKS IN FRONT OF ENGINE.

Instantly Killed When Pilot Strikes Him—No Name or Identification Marks.

Yesterday afternoon at about 2 o'clock as the freight was pulling into Oakland, a stranger, who had been quietly sitting near the track, deliberately arose, stepped quickly in front of the engine, and was struck by the pilot, which threw the body some distance to one side, death being instantaneous. The whole thing happened so suddenly, was so unlooked for, that the engineer had no time to avert the accident, nor could he have stopped the train, because the distance was so slight that to have brought the engine to a standstill would have been impossible.

A crowd quickly gathered around the body, but a hasty examination proved that life was extinct, and that death was instant.

The man had been loitering around the city and depot for some hours, but no one knew who he was or from whence he came. He was dressed as a laborer, was without coat or vest, nor was there anything in his pockets which would lead to his identity. He wore a black hat, which on the sweat band had stencilled the name of G. Brookman. Whether this was his name or not is mere conjecture. He wore no beard or moustache, but there was a two weeks' growth on his face. Three of his back teeth on the left side were gold filled. One molar was missing from the right side. He wore a good pair of shoes, and was apparently about 40 years of age.

Coroner Jewett visited the scene in the late afternoon, but after ascertaining the facts surrounding the tragedy, deemed that an inquest was unnecessary. The fellow had been around Oakland some hours before the train came in, and had been noticed by several persons who thought he acted queerly, but no particular attention was given him. It is the opinion of those who are acquainted with the facts surrounding the affair that the man was either insane, or that he was in a despondent mood, perhaps over lack of money or employment, and deliberately suicided. He had no money in his pockets, nor anything else of value. Unless the body is identified and claimed the county will order it interred.

SHERIFF'S NOTICE OF SALE.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Douglas County. The Roseburg National Bank, a corporation, plaintiff.

Donald Morrison and Georgiana Morrison, defendants.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of a Writ of Execution duly issued out of the above entitled Court and in the above entitled cause on the 25th day of June, 1912, upon a judgment and decree duly rendered and entered in said Court and cause on the 26th day of January, 1912, in favor of the above named plaintiff, the Roseburg National Bank, against the defendants above named, the said Donald Morrison and Georgiana Morrison for the sum of $202.75 with interest thereon from the 26th day of January, 1912, at the rate of eight per cent per annum and for the further sum of $39.00, attorney's fees, and the further sum of $13.75 as costs and disbursements of said suit and the costs of and upon this Writ of Execution commanding me to make sale of the following described real property, to-wit: The West one-half (1/2) of Block numbered Six (6) of P. E. Gabbert's Addition to the town of Myrtle Creek, Douglas County, Oregon, together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining.

Now therefore, in compliance with the command of said Writ of Execution I will on Saturday, the 31st day of August, 1912, at the hour of one o'clock P. M. on said day at the court house front door in the city of Roseburg, Douglas County, Oregon, sell at public auction, subject to redemption as prescribed by law, to the highest bidder, for United States gold coin, or lawful money of said United States, cash in hand, the above described real property together with all the right, title and interest of the said defendants, the said Donald Morrison and Georgiana Morrison, or either of them, had or may have had on the 30th day of October, 1908, on the 26th day of January, 1912, or since said dates, and will apply the proceeds of said sale, first, to the payment of the costs and disbursements of sale; second, to the payment of costs and disbursements of the suit herein taxed at $15.75; third, to the payment of the sum of $20.00, attorney's fees; fourth, to the payment of the sum of $202.75 with interest thereon from the 26th day of January, 1912, at the rate of eight per cent per annum; and the over-plus, if any there be, be paid to the Clerk of the above entitled Court and by him to be paid over to the defendants herein, their legal representatives, as by order of said Court in said execution to me directed commanding me to sell the above described real property together with the tenements and appurtenances, in the manner prescribed by law.

Dated this 29th day of July, 1912.
GEORGE K. QUINE,
Sheriff of Douglas County, Oregon. a29

FIFTEEN GREAT DEPARTMENTS OF KNOWLEDGE

The Fifteen Great Departments supply the needs and exercise all the faculties of the growing mind. Natural Science, which lights up nature; delightful history, mechanics and arts; beautiful places to be seen or dreamed about, adventure, which arrives and brings back a treasure; real people more interesting than giants and cleverer than fairies; things to make and do which delightfully occupy busy hands—all satisfy and stimulate eager young minds. The reason for including every department will be easily apparent after examining the book.

President John H. Finley, of the College of the City of New York, introduction says: "Suppose a boy of ten were to spend fifteen minutes a day reading these pages, . . . he would at 13 know more about the earth and the life on it than the wisest men knew a few generations ago."

A WELL-ROUNDED EDUCATION

A well-rounded education cannot be obtained in the school room alone. The boy or girl whose progress is the most rapid will almost always be the one whose reading has been carefully selected at home. The editors of the BOOK OF KNOWLEDGE have rendered this great service to childhood. No wise parent will neglect the opportunity offered by this work to study the disposition and capabilities of his child. In many cases a child's life work may be determined by the possession of these books.

THE THREEFOLD INFORMATION

The important facts in all the leading articles are indelibly impressed upon the mind in three different ways. First the summary at the head of each article, then the wonderfully interesting article itself, then the pictures illustrating it, with the several lines of terse and vivid description.

THE LITERARY DIGEST SAYS OF THE BOOK OF KNOWLEDGE:

"It is an exhaustive work and a notable example of editorial skill in the choice of topics and their treatment. Adults as well as children will be fascinated alike by the luminous text and the illustrations. As has already been pointed out in these columns, one of the uses of such a work would be to assist parents, their sons and daughters in finding out whether a child's natural bent be toward science, mechanics, trade or literature."

LET THE CHILDREN DECIDE

They will be delighted with the beautiful illustrated booklet mailed free giving the contents of each of the Departments of Knowledge. The valuable pamphlet, "The Mind of a Child," also presented.

The Grolier Society, LONDON and NEW YORK

THE WISDOM OF THE WORLD IN SIMPLE LANGUAGE

The lost art of simplicity—the art of presenting profound truths in the simple language which a child can understand—has been discovered by the editors of the BOOK OF KNOWLEDGE. The simple clear and convincing style which appeals equally to the adult mind is the secret of the great drawing power of this remarkable work. It quickens and stimulates thought and in a marked degree wakens interest in the world of ideas. Not only facts but ideals are absorbed, and learning made a real delight.
