TURKEY ROCKED

By Tremendous Earthquake—
Many People Killed

RUINS SEARCHED FOR VICTIMS

Tottering Walls Left By Earthquake Friday Fall In Today's Tremor
—Five Are Electrocuted
At Sing Sing.

(Special to The Evening News.)
CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 12.— People throughout the Ottoman Empire had scarcely recovered from the panic created by the severe earthquake of last Friday, and were still searching the ruins of buildings for bodies of victims killed on that day, when another series of hard shocks occurred today, and scores were doubtless added to the death list.
Many of the tottering walls that stood the first shock on Friday were thrown by the tremors that rocked nearly all of Turkey this morning. Residents of the city fled in renewed panic from their homes, and the streets were crowded with the frenzied populace. There were three distinct shocks today. It is impossible to estimate the loss of life and damage to property at present, but in each instance it is very great.

Five Electrocuted.
SING SING, Aug. 12.—All death records were broken here today when seven condemned men, five of whom died protesting their innocence, were electrocuted. The names of the men who paid the death penalty for murders they were convicted for committing, were John Collins, Joseph Ferrone, Angelo Gusita, Lorenzo Call, Filippo Demarco, Salvatore Demarco and Vincenzo Cona.

RURAL CONFERENCE AT O. A. C.
Problems of Farmer to be Discussed
This Fall at Gathering at College.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COL-LEGE, Corvallis, Ore., Aug. 12.—A rural conference for the discussion of farm problems is to be held at the Oregon Agricultural College this fall, and a big farmers' excursion to the college will be organized, with special rates from different parts of the state, to enable progressive farmers from the various communities to attend and take part in the program.

All organizations interested in rural life, including all religious denominations and those interested in the country schools and the improvement of the farming communities, are expected to join in threshing out vexed questions. The discussions will cover the rural church, school, and home, the farm, rural social and economic conditions.

Prof. R. D. Hetzel, director of extension at the college, has been receiving letters from all sections of the state commending the plan and offering assistance. The railroads will be asked to run excursion trains to bring the farmers and their families to spend a day or more at the college during the conference.

The different departments of the college are preparing a large number of exhibits and demonstrations of better methods of agricultural practice and home making, and some of the best speakers and farm experts in the West will be present to lecture.

The date is not yet set, as the college wishes to avoid conflict with other important meetings, but announcement will be made as soon as possible.

GOVERNMENT AID FOR HIGHWAYS.

Bourne's Parcels Post Plan Adopted
By The Upper House Today.

(Special to The Evening News.)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—By a vote of 37 to 31 the senate today adopted a substitute to the house provision in the postoffice appropriation bill, extending federal aid to the several states for improvement of the public highways. The amendment adopted creates a commission to investigate the feasibility of a comprehensive system of roads. The house bill contemplated federal aid with an annual appropriation of $15,- 000,000. The main plan advanced by Senator Bourne, of Oregon, for the parcels post zones, was adopted without discussion. Bourne's plan was substituted for the limited parcels post provision proposed in the house bill.
