

LEADERS PLANS

Roosevelt to Personally Stump
36 States

OPENING SPEECH IN ST. PAUL

Labor Day Marks Beginning of Western Tour—Washington
Progressives Arranging For Convention.

(Special to The Evening News.)
OYSTER BAY, Aug. 14.—Plans for the progressive campaign were discussed here today at a conference with Col. Roosevelt, Senator Dixon and George W. Perkins. Colonel Roosevelt announced that he expected to personally stump 36 states, but the details of his plan are not yet perfected. On Labor Day Roosevelt will deliver a speech at St. Paul, and this date will mark the beginning of a long Western tour in the interest of his candidacy.

SEATTLE, Aug. 14.—Following the final decision of progressive republicans to put a complete insurgent ticket in the field this fall, progressives who filed in regular republican primaries are rapidly withdrawing their candidacies today. A formal call, naming the day for the primaries, and a place for the convention, at which nominations may be made, will be given out in a few hours. The primaries will be morally binding on delegates to the convention.

LOCAL NEWS.

Mrs. C. T. Hoyt, of Boise, Idaho, arrived in Roseburg this morning to spend a few days with friends.

Robert J. McNabb, aged 76 years, and for about eighteen months an invalid.

BUSENBARK—To the wife of T. B. Busenbark, near Melrose, August 14, 1912, a son.

KIRKENDALL—To Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kirkendall, of Dillard, on Tuesday, August 13, a son.

mate of the Oregon Soldiers' Home, passed away very suddenly at about eight o'clock a. m., yesterday. The deceased was admitted to the home from Huntington, Baker county, and was a veteran of the Civil war. He served in the 37th Iowa Infantry and at the expiration of his service received an honorable discharge. The deceased arose as usual yesterday morning and upon entering the dining room appeared in the best of health. A half hour later he retired to his room where he was found by attendants. It is the belief of the Home officials that McNabb died of heart trouble and that the end came without suffering. Having no relatives, the remains of the deceased will be interred in the Home cemetery at nine o'clock tomorrow morning.

The Melrose Grange social held Saturday evening to raise money for the Melrose fair was a grand success. A record breaker crowd was in attendance, thanks to The News. Among the visitors from Roseburg were Sheriff Quine, Mr. Lorch and George Neuner, the latter giving a short, spicy address, much enjoyed by those present. Several numbers were rendered by local talent, all of which were very good. Organizer Barber, of Myrtle Creek, was present. After the general program, Mr. Pember, the Melrose merchant entertained the crowd for a time in crying the sale of boxes. Mr. Pember is acquainted with the fine points of the game and kept the crowd in good humor throughout. After boxes were sold, ice cream was served. The proceeds of the evening, after expenses were paid, was $56.00, which goes toward helping the Grange pay the expenses of the fair, September 11 and 12.
