PRUNE PICKERS.

There is an insistent demand in this county at the present time for prune pickers. Many millions of prunes are ripe and ready for drying but they cannot get to the driers for the reason that there is not sufficient help to pick them. The News has carried advertisements for prune pickers for the past two weeks, and some persons seeking employment have received it, but the demand is greater than the supply. Persons de-greater than the supply. Persons de-Douglas county's greatest crop would do well in looking up prune ranches and getting employment.

MORE FIRE PROTECTION.

The city council meets again tonight. Within the past week two fires have occurred. Both places might have been partially saved had there been more and better fire protection. It is the duty of the city to protect its citizens against loss by fire. It is hoped that the council will take some action looking to the betterment of Roseburg's fire fighting service.

Ohio voters last week adopted forty one out of forty two amendments to its constitution. Among those adopted were the initiative and referendum, reform in civil jury system, the regulation of expert testimony in criminal trials and changes in the jury system. The only amendment that failed of adoption was that granting women the right to vote.

The News was tried twice last week. Once by an attorney representing the brewery and once by a newspaper. But the verdict of the jury—which is the people—was that The News is NOT GUILTY.

Local affairs have so occupied our mind recently that we would like to ask "Who is running for president of the United States this fall?"

Every now and then the remark has been heard "Will it ever warm up again?" The answer is today.

Someone is likely to start an agitation for the recall of jurors.

Through his attorney J. A. Buchanan, J. S. Mr. Cherrington alleges in his complaint that he entered into an agreement with Mr. Riddle, whereby he was to find a buyer for the latter's store, and in return for his services was to receive a commission of two and one-half per cent based on the amount of money involved in the sale. Mr. Cherrington claims that he furnished the buyers and the deal was closed satisfactorily to all concerned. Mr. Cherrington now asks for a judgment in the sum of $157.46, or the equivalent in two and one-half per cent commission on $6,289.56.
