

OLIVE OIL

Has long been used for the table and for the making of fine dressings, but its use as a food and as a health help is rapidly growing. Physicians realize the wonderful nourishing effects of Olive Oil and its value as a food tonic. We can supply you with the best Virgin Olive Oil

"The Angelina Brand"

We guarantee this oil to be absolutely pure in every particular. It is expressed from olives of the right degree of ripeness. It is a smooth oil with a bland and pleasant taste. For whatever use you want olive oil, you will find this oil meets your requirements; as a dressing—as a condiment—as a food—or a medicine, this oil will satisfy you. In sealed cans

Vice President Sherman And His Cheery Helpmeet

THOUGH her health has not always permitted her to take an active part in the social life of Washington, Mrs. Sherman, the wife of the vice president, is one of the most popular women in the capital. While her husband was still a representative in congress she was many instrumental in forming the Congressional club, which is made up of the wives of senators and representatives. She is small in stature, has gray hair and, like her husband, has a youthful face, which usually wears a smile. Mrs. Sherman through her many years spent in Washington has obtained an insight into politics that few of her sex possess. She is abreast of the times and is an interesting conversationalist on events of a public character. Mrs. Sherman was the daughter of General Elakim Babcock and was married in 1851. Mr. and Mrs. Sherman have three sons.

LOCAL NEWS.

George Hoath came in from his ranch this morning to look after business affairs.

Floyd Frear left here this morning for Eugene, Portland and other northern cities. It may be possible that Mr. Frear will locate at some northern point.

C. P. Barnard, of the Roseburg-Marshfield stage line, left for Eugene this morning to join Mrs. Barnard and daughter, Alose, who left for the university city yesterday.

Mrs. E. B. Grayes left here this morning for Elk City, Lincoln county, where she will locate permanently. Mr. Grayes will follow tomorrow.

Miss Bertha Morley, the beautiful daughter of the Edenhower capitalist, D. W. Morley, and Mr. Ray E. Marsters, son of W. E. Marsters, the well known monument men, were married at the Baptist parsonage Wednesday evening by Rev. W. H. Eaton in the presence of a few friends. Both young people are well known in Roseburg, and are favorites among their friends. They will be at home to their friends at once in their home in North Roseburg.

A quantity of whiskey, consigned to several laborers about town, was received here last Saturday from Portland, and as a result several jags were in evidence Saturday night and Sunday. There should be some way to reach the liquor dealers who solicit orders and ship booze into "dry" territory.—Sutherland Sun.

Robert L. Gile went to Salem this morning to look after business interests.

J. J. Alexander left here this morning for Zillah, Wash., where he will visit with his daughter.

Dr. John R. Chapman left here today for the country where he will spend the next few days.

Mrs. D. C. Humphrey and children returned here last evening after two weeks spent at Albany visiting with the former's parents.

Jess Applegate, of the Oregon Soldiers' Home, left for Yoncalla this morning to spend a few days with relatives.

Miss Estes Ward left for Junction City this morning where she will spend a few days visiting with friends and relatives.

Miss Ella Minch, of Chicago, Ill., arrived here this morning to spend a few days visiting at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Bullwinkle.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Skeen left for their home in Washington this morning after a visit with their daughter, Mrs. Frank Goodman, at Looking Glass.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schwartz and child left for Eugene, Portland and other northern cities this morning where they will spend a couple of weeks.
