THE LAST WORD.

Fashion Approves the Box Plaited Skirt.

THE NEW PLAID COSTUME.

Plaids have once more come back to fashionable favor, and they are to be seen forming the underskirt of many of the best fall costumes.

Pictured is a gown with the new box plaited skirt, which, you see, adds no fullness to the width at the bottom. The plaids are stitched and pressed flat so that the slim silhouette is preserved. The overdrapery is somewhat on the tunic order with an odd wash effect. The collar and cuffs of white faille silk are edged with scantily plaited lingerie embroidery. This collar, broad at the back, ends sharply at the shoulder line.

CHAT WITH THE BRIDE.

About Going to Housekeeping and About Furnishings.

Are you going to housekeeping? A sensible girl if you do.

Love of home life should be instilled in the early days of marriage in the hearts of both man and wife.

The man will be much less apt to wander from his own fireside if he feels that he has a personal interest in it.

The woman will be less apt to degenerate into a gossip if she has the care of her home in her keeping.

It is such a pleasure to beautify your own home and add a little to your belongings from month to month.

Pay for everything as you get it. Better delay your marriage a year than to begin overburdened with debts. If funds are low start with the furnishings of the kitchen, dining room, bedroom and living room.

Put only the absolutely necessary articles into these rooms.

Purchase only good, substantial furniture, allowing nothing for show.

These articles will last a lifetime and will never look poor, while showy tawdry furniture grows shabby in a few months' time.

A couple married four years ago adopted the following ideas with great success:

They bought their small house before it was finished and less the cost of piping.

They are buying it through a building association.

The piping will come later.

What little furniture they have bought has been paid for and is really good.

Two beautiful children gladden the hearts of their parents, and their training is just what you would expect from such sensible people. This is one of the homes where happiness is sure to reign.

Caps For Milk Bottles.

How to keep milk bottles in the cleanest and most satisfactory way concerns all housewives. To aid in obtaining this cleanliness milk bottle "caps" are now for sale. One kind, made of celluloid, fits into the bottle and opens with a small aluminum shutter, so that the milk may be poured out and the bottle closed afterward.

These cost 15 cents each or two for 25 cents. Another kind is of celluloid and must be taken out of the bottle each time it is used. These latter are also made for condensed milk. They cost 10 cents each.

The Widener Memorial.

Mrs. George D. Widener, who was a passenger on the ill-fated Titanic, her husband and son losing their lives on it, will give $2,000,000 to Harvard for a library in memory of her son, Henry F. Widener. He was graduated from Harvard in 1907, and his collection of books will be housed within it. It will be erected next to the present Harvard library and will be a work of art, as much pains has been taken in selecting plans for the building.
