

LOCAL NEWS.

Everybody's Cafe for quick service. Popular prices. s21

Mrs. Short went to Riddle this morning to visit with friends.

E. B. Barber, of Myrtle Creek, spent the day in Roseburg looking after business interests.

Mrs. M. E. Matthews, of Looking Glass, was a visitor in Roseburg for a few hours today.

J. L. Fisher, of Olalla, transmitted business matters in the city for a few hours today.

George Crute, of Looking Glass, spent the day in Roseburg visiting with friends and relatives.

Papers of final account were today filed in the probate court in the estate of Barbara Backer, deceased.

J. M. Engle returned to Oakland this morning after a few days spent in Roseburg looking after business interests.

Hermann Marsters, the plumber, is prepared to install gas fittings as well as pipe houses. He guarantees satisfaction. tt District Attorney George M. Brown who has been attending court in Coos county for the past ten days is expected home next Tuesday.

A marriage license was issued by the county clerk this morning to Levi Day and Mrs. Elva A. Lyons, both residents of Douglas county.

The greatest line of Aluminum Ware ever shown in Roseburg. The Ware that Wears. Not the cheap flimsy kind, but the good heavy reliable sort. Call and examine quality—the prices are right. RICE & RICE. tt

H. M. Macy, of Prescott, Wash., who recently purchased the beautiful 160 acre ranch formerly owned by F. W. Leonard and situated nearillard, left for his home this morning where he will make arrangements preparatory to locating in Douglas county permanently.

Papers of final settlement in the estate of Charles Weythman, deceased, were filed in the probate court this morning. The estate is valued at $17,500 and is composed of personal property.

Mrs. William Goodman and daughter, Miss Maud, left for Oakland this morning after a few days spent in Roseburg visiting with relatives. They were accompanied by Miss Bernice Newland, of Roseburg.

H. B. Church and James Clark have returned here after ten days spent in the mountains hunting. The boys report excellent luck and succeeded in bagging several beautiful bucks.

Frank L. Leonard, who will lecture in Roseburg tomorrow evening under the auspices of the local Christian Science church is expected to arrive here tonight. Mr. Leonard is an able orator and should be greeted by a large audience.

A party of Portland gentlemen traveling in a "Pathfinder," under the auspices of the Portland Automobile Club, passed through Roseburg this morning enroute south. With the exception of Pass Creek Canyon the gentlemen report the roads in fair condition.

A very delightful time was enjoyed at the Odd Fellows' Temple, in Roseburg, last night when the members of Philetarian, Rising Star and Rebekah lodges, I. O. O. F., joined in welcoming Grand Master W. A. Wheeler, and his estimable wife, of Portland. The interior of the hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion and brought forth many expressions of praise. The evening was spent in listening to brief addresses, including a very interesting discourse by Grand Master Wheeler. The gentleman is well versed in the work of Odd Fellowship and attracted the closest attention of his audience. Others who addressed the meeting were members of the local lodges. Late in the evening a delicious banquet was served by the Rebekahs.

LOCAL NEWS.

For a good dinner, try Everybody's Cafe. s21

Dr. A. C. Seely was called to Myrtle Creek on business this morning.

Alva Atkins, of Riddle, was a business visitor in Roseburg for a few hours today.

Editor D. E. Vernon, of Oakland, came over this morning to look after business matters.

Jack Wilson returned to his home at Canyonville today after attending to business interests in this city.

H. G. Wilson, the Indian land agent, has returned here after a few days spent at points in the northern part of the state.

H. J. Robinette, who resides above Peel, is spending a few days in Roseburg attending to business interests and visiting with friends.

A crew of plumbers are busy today repairing the county jail following Thursday night's break for liberty on the part of R. L. Mooney.

Douglas County Creamery butter is the best on the market. Insist on your grocer supplying you with this home product, which is always strictly fresh and guaranteed. Two pound roll, 80 cents. tt

Notice of appeal in the case of H. M. Oatman and T. A. Lane vs. The Bankers and Merchants Mutual Fire Relief Association was filed in the circuit court this morning by Attorney J. A. Buchanan, who represents the defendants. The case was tried in the circuit court for Douglas county several months ago and resulted in a verdict in the sum of $1,500 for the plaintiff.

A. T. Bestul, a well known timber dealer, this morning filed a suit in the circuit court against A. E. and Carrie Crouch. The plaintiff seeks to recover the sum of $1,200, alleged to be due on a promissory note executed at Coquille City, Coos county, on December 31, 1908. In order to realize the amount of the principal the plaintiff asks that a mortgage on certain property held by the defendant be foreclosed. Plaintiff also requests a judgment for interest at the rate of eight per cent as well as an amount equivalent to the taxes advanced by the plaintiff. Bestul is represented by Attorneys Mitchell & Mawrey.

H. J. Wilson has filed a suit in the circuit court against Charles E. Stewart, in which he seeks to cancel a certain contract as well as regain exclusive title to a certain tract of land situated in Southern Douglas county. Mr. Wilson alleges that he entered into a contract with the defendant whereby the latter purchased a particular tract of land at a specified price of $12,000. Four thousand dollars of this sum was paid at the time of the sale, according to Mr. Wilson, while the remainder of the sum was to be paid in installments. Mr. Wilson further alleges that the title to the land was not to pass to Mr. Stewart until such time as the final payment was made. The plaintiff claims that the defendant took possession of the land, but failed to meet any of the payments, save the $4,000 which was tendered at the time the sale was effected. Mr. Wilson now asks that the contract be cancelled and that he be given exclusive title to the land in question. Attorneys Fullerton & Orcutt represent the plaintiff.

The suit against Harry Hill, proprietor of a saloon at Springfield, and J. C. Fuller, one of his bartenders, who were jointly charged with selling liquor to a minor, was discontinued in Justice Bryson's court yesterday afternoon, the defendants being dismissed and their bondsmen released. Complaint was made by Mrs. Cora E. Johnson that her son, Howard, a youth of 19, had been sold intoxicants in Hill's place last Monday evening, when the young man, accompanied by a friend, Orlando Young, arrived in Eugene from the wet town apparently in a befuddled condition from drink. The case came up for trial yesterday morning. While the young man and his companion testified to having been served drinks in two places, testimony was introduced by the defense showing that Johnson had tried to buy a glass of beer in Hill's place, but had been refused the drink and was ordered out of the saloon. At 11:30 o'clock court was adjourned until 1:30 to await the appearance of other witnesses, and on reconvening, Prosecutor Bryson moved that there was insufficient evidence to warrant holding the defendants for trial in the circuit court. Attorney C. A. Hardy was counsel for the de-

RICE & RICE

The House Furnishers

Complete House Furnishers

Beautiful Line of Large Rockers also Couches and Davenport

Never were seen in Southern Oregon as large a line of beds as are now on our floor ready for your inspection, price ranging from $2.50 to $50.00, any color, any design you may wish.

Always remember Rice & Rice pays the freight

Our store is ready for your Fall shopping—Call on us for help—We can make your buying easy—Do not wait, be among the first

We are speeding up and our store is brim full of good values for the homes comfort

We call your particular attention to our fine line of carpets and rugs directly imported for our own store. Prices that will appeal to all.

Excellent line of dining room furniture specially priced. Massive and elaborate extension tables with chairs and buffets to match

Stoves, Stoves, Stoves, Heaters, 50 patterns, all the latest improved wood and coal savers. Remember we will not be undersold by any firm. Ranges, Ranges, Ranges, the Great Majestic, the king pin of all ranges made. Guaranteed for a life time. Remember we solicit your mail orders and prepay all freight charges.

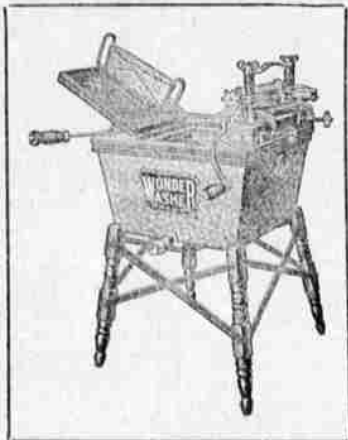

RICE & RICE, The House Furnishers

The "Wonder"

.....WASHES A TUB.....

In Two Minutes

Will be demonstrated Saturday at Strong's Furniture Store. COME AND SEE.

This is the wonderful Machine that I sell and use myself, and many Douglas county people now have

"The Wonder"

B. W. Strong

"The Furniture Man."

fense.—Eugene Register. (Hill was formerly engaged in the theatre business in Roseburg where he is well known.)

Rhoades & Henry, the contractors, were last night awarded the contract to lay a cement sidewalk on Mosher street, between the Southern Pacific tracks and Filat street. Work on the contract will be commenced early Monday.

Colonel Caukin, of Portland, is spending a few days in Roseburg visiting with old time friends and incidentally inspecting the Oregon Soldiers' Home. Col. Caukin stopped off here enroute home from Los Angeles where he attended the annual reunion of the G. A. R.

Attorneys Elbert Hermann and Dexter Rice, representing the Roseburg Brewing & Ice Company, yesterday afternoon filed a motion in the circuit court asking that the quo warranto proceedings filed against the brewery corporation by District Attorney Brown be made more explicit, and that the names of all persons to whom the brewery is alleged to have sold liquor be set out in the complaint. In another motion the attorneys for the brewery seek to strike out certain portions of the complaint filed by the district attorney. It is not probable that the motions will be argued pending the return of District Attorney Brown, who is attending court in Coos county.

A. M. Armstrong, the Riddle lumberman, spent yesterday in Roseburg looking after business interests.

The Bellows Store Company a few days ago ran an advertisement in this paper. The ad. was gotten up particularly to attract the attention of school children, and was in the form of an outline picture. The real picture was on display in the window of the Bellows store. The outline of the picture in the ad. was to be filled in by the school children as near as possible to correspond with the real picture in the window. The Bellows store did this as an experiment and they were much pleased with the result. The children responded promptly and in great numbers. The display in the window of the store attracted much attention, not only from the children engaged in the contest, but from parents and elders as well, which again demonstrates the value of advertising.

John W. Campbell, Bull Moose candidate for congressman from the first congressional district, returned here last night after a few days spent at Salem, Portland and other northern cities. While not conceding his election, Mr. Campbell says he believes that the Bull Moose party stands an excellent chance of carrying Oregon at the November election. He says the "Bull Moosers" were given a royal reception at Salem, and were the recipients of many expressions of encouragement.

S. H. Bowers, who was given a preliminary hearing in Justice Marsters' court late yesterday afternoon was held to appear before the grand jury during the regular November term of the circuit court under $1,000 bail. Unable to furnish the required bond Bowers will necessarily have to remain in jail awaiting disposition of his case. The state was represented by Attorney O. H. Porter, while Attorney J. O. Watson appeared on behalf of the defendant. Bowers was arrested on a charge of enticing little Bernice Harpster into the country where he attempted questionable liberties with the child. The story told by the child when placed on the witness stand was almost identical with that published in Thursday's issue of The News. The defendant preferred to remain off the witness stand.