Cookery Points

The School Lunch.
Sandwiches are the staple for the school lunch. Variety in the kinds of bread used is most desirable. Nearly every kind of meat is usable, and there are also the various pastes made from all sorts of scraps and leftovers in the meat line, put through the chopping machine and seasoned to suit the children's tastes. Cold chicken, roast beef, lamb, ham and even thin slices of beefsteak (wrapped in paraffin paper) help to add to the variety and are always acceptable. It is a good idea to save all the paper from the cracker boxes and use it to wrap the different articles in, so that they do not taste of one another.

A most delicious filling for graham sandwiches is made of cream cheese to which have been added some chopped nut meats, olives or a wee bit of green pepper. For another good filling take the yolks of hard boiled eggs, add pepper and salt and a tiny pinch of curry powder. Mix to a paste and spread rather thick. These may be varied by a little catsup or sauce of any kind in stead of the curry.

Hard boiled eggs from which the yolks have been removed may be stuffed with spinach, seasoned to taste or with chopped nut meats, cold ham or celery dressed with either mayonnaise or French dressing. Another way is to stuff them with clipped ham mixed with a bit of the yolk and vinegar, pepper and salt, or just cheese and mayonnaise may be used.

Below are given the menus for a week's lunches, which could, however, be varied indefinitely:

Monday.—Bread and cheese sandwiches, sliced chicken (from Sunday's dinner), celery tips, nut and apple salad (in a glass bottle, piece of chocolate cake and an orange.

Tuesday.—Graham bread and cream cheese sandwiches, clam broth in a vacuum bottle, olives, sweet crackers, figs and an orange.

Wednesday.—Cold roast beef sandwiches (made of rolls), cabbage salad (in bottle), dates, a piece of cake and an apple.

Thursday.—Deviled meat sandwiches, baked apple or apple sauce (in bottle), salted or fresh peanuts, cookies, milk chocolate and an orange.

Friday.—Egg sandwiches (made from yolks, stuffed eggs (using one of the fillings suggested previously), chicken broth in the vacuum bottle, cracker turts and an apple.

Potato Pancakes.

For three potatoes weighing about a half pound each allow two or three eggs, one-half cupful of milk, one level teaspoonful of salt and, if necessary, a very little flour.

Grate the potatoes (raw) in a pan of cold water, let stand a few minutes, then drain, put potatoes with the starch that remained at the bottom of the pan in a cheesecloth bag, squeeze out all water, then put back the potato with the other ingredients and fry the cakes as you would wheat cakes in hot fat.

Ginger Loaf.

Place in a bowl a cupful each of molasses and sour cream and mix into this two rounding cupfuls of flour sifted with two level teaspoonfuls of soda, the same of ginger and a little salt. Add a well beaten egg, mix thoroughly and bake.

Wash rice, mix ingredients and pour into buttered pudding dish. Bake three hours in very slow oven, stirring three times during first hour of baking to prevent rice from settling.

Fine Sponge Cake.

Take the whites of twenty eggs, two gobletfuls of flour, three of pulverized sugar, two teaspoonfuls of extract of lemon and one of cream of tartar. Sift the flour carefully, mix the sugar, eggs and lemon thoroughly and stir in the flour gradually, taking care not to toughen it by too much beating. The great test is in the baking. The oven should be very hot, and the cake should be baked only a few minutes, until it is a light brown.

Grapefruit Sauce.

One grapefruit, two bananas and one cupful of preserved pineapple are required. Separate the grapefruit into sections and scrape the fruit into a dish, discarding all peel and linings. Peel the bananas, split them lengthwise into quarters and then slice crosswise into the dish with the grapefruit. Add the pineapple and sugar to taste and mix slightly. Serve with sponge cake.

German Nut Loaf.

Sift together four cupfuls of flour, four heaping teaspoonfuls baking powder, half cupful sugar, teaspoonful salt, one cupful chopped walnuts, one cupful raisins, one egg, well beaten, and two cupfuls milk. Mix well together and put in buttered pans and allow to stand twenty minutes. Bake in moderate oven forty-five minutes. Serve in thin slices with butter.

Molasses Cake.

Mix in order given, one cupful of butter and the same of sugar, two cupfuls of molasses, two cupfuls of
