President Taft In Action And His Summer Residence

Photos by American Press Association.

WHILE President William Howard Taft, whom the Republican party hopes to send back to the White House, has not entered actively into the campaign, so far as "swinging around the circle" is concerned, he has managed to set forth his views on the crucial topics of the hour. He has done this in newspaper interviews and during his public appearances at various celebrations. He has remained close to his summer home at Beverly, Mass., except on such occasions as he has gone to Washington on official business or has spoken at public functions. His has been what has been called a "dignified campaign." At Beverly he has found a little rest and quiet from the activities of his office after congress had completed one of the longest sessions on record, but he has kept in touch with every move in his fight for re-election through his lieutenants on the Republican national committee, and he has announced in newspaper interviews that he is confident of serving the country for four years more.

CHEERY HOMES

It doesn't take many pieces of furniture to make a room look comfortable and homelike and even if there is a piece or so less and the furniture is good, the room wont look bare, but no matter how much trash you put into a room you don't get the true home effect. Trash in furniture is conspicuous, may be it doesn't look that way in the catalogue, but you will always find it that way when you get it home and in the room where you intend putting it. This is not true with good furniture, which really fills more than the space it occupies. Now the difference between trash and good furniture is apparent to us before it goes into any home. We know the difference and buy our goods accordingly and that's the reason you can't buy trash from us.
