Mr. Brown is making a clean, quiet campaign for the office to which he aspires and is making many friends.—Myrtle Creek Mail.

Local sportsmen yesterday received from the state game commission 15,000 bass which were planted in the South Umpqua river. Some of their number were planted near the dam, while others were taken as far south as Greens. Local fishermen are much enthused over the prospects of stocking the Douglas county streams, and to date have received over 100,000 fish of different varieties during the present summer. The bass arrived here in fine shape, and were immediately taken in charge by local automobilists and hustled to the nearby streams where they were planted.

Treating eyestrain by means of suitable glasses is not by any means so simple as it appears. The necessary skill can only be acquired by years of sound close study and experience. The necessary knowledge covers a wide field and includes eye physiology and anatomy, physical and visual optics in the advanced stages, also a practical knowledge of lens grinding, cutting of cutting, and polishing of glasses in all their forms. Dr. Lowe's more than 21 years experience is at your services, at a most reasonable cost.

FIRST ROAD SHOW OF THE SEASON.

At The Palace Theatre Friday
Night October 25.

"The Old Homestead," with Mr. William Lawrence as Joshua Whitcomb, will be at the Palace theatre Friday night, October 25. It is unnecessary to state the nature of this play, as it is now in its twenty-seventh season.

What can possibly be said at this late day for or against, in praise or blame, of Denman Thompson's "The Old Homestead?" Criticism of this play has long since been annihilated. "Who builds stronger?" queried the First Gravedigger, "than the mason, the shipwright or the carpenter?" The answer should have been, Denman Thompson. Verily, the play that he builded will "last till Doomsday." It is not so much of a drama now as an institution. The production in this the twenty-seventh season of "The

SECTION 2062 LOHD'S
OREGON LAWS.

"Any person who shall by promise of favor or reward, or otherwise, induce or persuade any person to come into this state, for the purpose and with the intent that such person shall, by so changing his habitation, vote at any general election which may hereafter be held in this state, at any place where such voter or person is not a bona fide resident, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished as hereinafter provided."

The punishment provided for violation of the foregoing section is imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than three years, of fine not less than $100 nor more than $1000, or both such fine and imprisonment, and all persons convicted shall be forever ineligible to hold any office of trust or profit in this state.

"The Old Homestead" is said to be up to the same standard of excellence which has always been the aim of the management. In fact this high standard of company and equipment is the very reason the old play has been so successful these many years. Reserved seats on sale at Marsters drug store commencing Wednesday morning.
