THE FAVORITE NOW.

Campfire Costume Popular For Indoor Wear.

FRONT OF BROWN SERGE.

More popular this winter than the former favorite, the middie suit, is the campfire girl costume which is being worn indoors. This costume includes a trimly belted short skirt with big pockets. It is very natty when developed in brown serge, touched up with collar and cuffs of tan cloth or suede leather.

The Making of Cords.

Now that fancy cords are so much used why not make your own for less than half the store price? The number of threads needed depends on the thickness of the cord desired. Experiment with a short bit will illustrate this. For a four-strand cord measure little more than four times the length desired. Double once, then stand at one end of the room facing an assistant at the opposite end and let both twist the thread away from you in opposite directions. Now catch the cord in the center, join the ends evenly and release the center, which will allow it to curl self into the finished cord, only smoothing occasionally to prevent kinks. If the thread is very fine or an unusually heavy cord is desired the process may be repeated, twisting the twisted threads, doubling again and allowing the cord to adjust itself. Fasten one end with a self knot and there will be no unraveling.

How Do You Like the Pannier? Particularly graceful and pretty is this little gown of taupe charmeuse.

GOWN OF TAUPE CHARMOUSE.

which has a pannier tulle over a plain skirt and a wide collar of tulle and silk. The shirt shows just the tip of a lady's patent leather boot with a laced top of taupe suede.

Turkish Toweling.

The new Turkish toweling has among its possibilities developed an aptitude for the making of children's coats; it is quite inexpensive, and it is not now regarded as possessing these qualities but there is much approval given to coats of tulle finished by scalloped, apron-like collars of the silk or made with a plain yoke and worn with a awn collar.
