Woman's World

Ethel Smyth, Famous as Composer and Suffragette.

DR. ETHEL SMYTH.

Window smashing and the gentle art of musical composition seem separate and distinct vocations, but Dr. Ethel Smyth, one of the most famous of women composers and an English suffragette of the very militant type, is able to combine both achievements successfully.

As every one knows, Ethel Smyth was arrested not long ago on the charge of being concerned in the attempt to burn Lewis Harcourt's country house at Neneham, Oxford. She has put the woman's demand for the vote into music in her choral satire "1910," which is a grotesque symphony of suffragettes, anti-suffragettes and the hullabaloo of a Parliament square riot.

The University of Durham conferred on Miss Smyth the degree of doctor of music two years ago in recognition of her work.

Hat Trimmings at Weird Angles.
 Aigret trimmings now slant at very weird angles. Sometimes the tall, thick aigret seems to be poised exactly upright against the hat brim when the hat is viewed off the head, but the hat is probably domed at a decided angle. The aigret takes a backward, almost horizontal, sweep when the finished effect is achieved. An extreme model shows a hat brim turning up steeply at the front for six inches, while at the back there is scarcely any brim at all. A stiff brush aigret stands out straight at the back, exactly at right angles to the uprising brim in front. Off the head this hat is a veritable caricature, but when on the high brim slopes backward and not straight up, and the long brush aigret slants downward in chic and graceful manner. Sometimes long wings are poised upside down on the hat, their long tips meeting at the back, far beyond the hat brim. A hat of this sort was noted the other afternoon at one of the hotels. A pretty young woman removed her loose linen-sleeve coat, to reveal a graceful frock of taupe colored permo stuff—a worsted and mohair weave of softness and luster—and the charming frock was matched by a taupe plush hat having two business taupe wings shading to coral at the tips. An ornament of dull silver and coral was placed across the front of the hat between the wings. Patent leather boots with taupe-colored buttoned tops accompanied the taupe frock.

What to Use on Floor.
 Handsome hardwood floors are the joy of a proud housewife. Likewise, they please the maid, for the amount of care they require is negligible in comparison with that demanded by the old-fashioned carpet, when any pretense of keeping the house clean and sanitary was made.

The passing of the carpet marked the beginning of a new epoch in house building. Formerly, only the kitchen floor was considered of special importance; now, all the flooring must be good, because, with the general use of rugs, large and small, it is all more or less exposed to the visitor's gaze. As for the kitchen floor in these times it is more likely than not to be covered with high grade linoleum, laid in cement designed for that special purpose and making a seamless covering that may be washed with soap and water and that will outwear many a wooden floor, if given a coat of linoleum varnish once or twice a year.

The First Newspaper.
 The first daily newspaper in the world was established and edited by a woman—Elizabeth Mallet—in London, 1702. It was called the Daily Courant. The first daily paper published in the United States was started by a woman. The first newspaper in Rhode Island had a woman as its publisher, as had also the second paper started in New York city. The Maryland Gazette, the first paper established in Lord Baltimore's colony, was started by a woman, and the same is true of the Virginia Gazette, the first newspaper to print the Declaration of Independence.
