COUNTY COURT ISSUES ORDER

District Attorney Files Motion Asking Court To Recite Evidence On Which Order Is Based—Court Refuses.

Declaring that the elections were conducted according to law and were regular in every particular, the members of the county court this afternoon issued an order proclaiming Sutherlin, Oakland and Glendale "wet" territory.

The question of the validity of the recent local option elections in the three towns involved was raised by District Attorney George M. Brown, who contended that the election was held at the time of the general election on November 5, and that the said cities had not been made voting precincts, but that the said question was submitted to the voters of the precincts and not exclusively to voters of the towns.

The members of the county court met in special session yesterday, at which time District Attorney Brown made an eloquent appeal in substantiation of his contentions. This address was answered by Attorney Elbert Hermann, of counsel for the local brewery, who claimed that the elections were conducted according to law.

Following the arguments the members of the court assembled in secret session, and not until nearly noon today did they arrive at a conclusion. This conclusion was in the form of an order, duly signed by the members of the court, and proclaiming play of merit and lots of cups and ribbons, travels to all shows and generally gets the prizes.

This was transportation day and the Harriman lines in Oregon employes, numbering close to 1,000 came in a body, first marching through town with various floats and banners, several of them got up as comic stage farmers.

Half apparently have lived a part of their lives in our fair city, judging by conversations we hear, as they point out where they were born, lived, drank or were married in our town. Lots of questions are asked regarding the Umpqua Valley and we try to present our resources in the best light and manner, and give out the booklets.

Roseburg visitors today include, D. J. Stewart, S. E. Hall, C. N. Frakes, R. H. Leadbetter.

Thursday Busy Day. The attendance today was again good, although not so good as yesterday. The same enthusiasm was displayed in the varied products so artistically spread before the admiring gaze of visitors.

Yesterdy Mr. Skinner and I were invited to a luncheon at the Multnomah hotel given by the Portland Ad Club to visiting members of the Horticultural Society and fruit men. Short snappy speeches were made, dealing with the problem of disposing of the immense crop of apples and as to the best methods of advertising the apple.

Mr. Givin, manager of the Northwestern Fruit Exchange made a good talk along these lines, as also did Mr. Malboeuf and suggested taxing every box of apples shipped 2 or 3 cents each to raise a sum to start an advertising campaign. This is the method employed by the Orange men of California, who annually raise and spend $150,000 to advertise the orange.

Today all exhibitors at the Land Show were invited to a luncheon given by the commercial club in their fine rooms in the commercial building.

A large company of us sat down to a very good lunch and afterwards listened with enjoyment to a few short talks, subsequently having our picture taken both at the table and then outside the building.

I met Mr. Selig, manager of the Hood River Fruit Association, tonight and exceedingly enjoyed a half hour's chat with him. He in common with all thoughtful fruit men deplores the lack of organization in the selling end of the game and fully agrees with the idea that unless we Northwesterners can all get together and pool our interests as the orange and lemon men have done, that we shall soon be forced out of the game owing to ruinous price cutting and uncontrolled selling.

He admired our Baldwin from Myrtle Creek very much as did Mr. Davidson, of the Davidson Fruit Company, of Hood River, and said that Hood River took its hat off to the Umpqua Valley pear. Hood River men are as thick
