TO YOU--OUR CUSTOMER

WHILE you live in our neighborhood we hope to keep you on our customer list. To do this we intend to give you the best of service, the best of drugs and the best satisfaction that good intentions, good goods and proper prices can give.

If there is any point in which we fall short of our intentions, we shall be pleased to know it. If it can be remedied, it shall be; if not, it will not harm either of us to talk it over.

We are in your community to sell goods, and we cannot do that unless our trade is satisfied: "our trade" means you and a few others.

When we recommend DIKE'S remedies we are offering to you the best that can be obtained, and for these remedies we have the exclusive sale in this neighborhood.

Each DIKE preparation that we sell should convince you that we mean to give you excellent goods. They are made of the best ingredients, by skilled pharmacists, in well equipped laboratories, and each remedy is recommended by thousands who have used them.

SUGGESTIVE QUESTIONS

On the Sunday School Lesson by Rev. Dr. Linscott For the International Press Bible Question Club.

Copyright, 1912, by Rev. F. S. Linscott, D. D.

Nov. 24, 1912.

(Copyright, 1912, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D. D.)

The Transfiguration. Mark ix:2-13. Golden Text--A voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my Son, my chosen; hear ye him. And when the voice came Jesus was alone. Luke ix:35.

(1.) Verses 2-3--What mountain did Jesus and his three disciples probably ascend and how high is it said to be?

(2.) What time of the day did the transfiguration probably take place?

(3.) What was the probable object aimed at in this transfiguration of Jesus? (This is one of the questions which may be answered in writing by members of the club.)

(4.) Why did not Jesus take the whole company of the apostles to witness this great sight?

(5.) If, as is probable, the transfiguration took place at night how would you describe the scene?

(6.) Verse 4--What opinion would you express as to why Moses and Elijah were selected from the innumerable company in heaven to appear on this occasion?

(7.) Do you think there were any other spirit people who could not be seen by mortal eye there?

(8.) What sort of bodies and what kind of voices did Moses and Elijah probably have?

(9.) Would you say, or not, and why, that the spirits of the dead are sometimes seen and conversed with today?

(10.) If a hunter and his dog had been on this mountain and at this spot when this scene occurred how much of it would they have probably seen and heard?

(11.) Verse 5--How nearly may this transfiguration experience be enjoyed now by truly spiritual people?

(12.) What would you say is the maximum possibility at this time of seeing and hearing God and the inhabitants of the spirit world?

(13.) What is generally the experience today when a few devout souls get alone to talk of God and heaven and to pray?

(14.) Verse 6--Why were these men afraid and why are people generally afraid in the presence of the supernatural?

(15.) When men and women are filled with the Spirit of God are they, as a rule, dull or bright in their intellectual faculties?

(16.) What is the resemblance, if any, between men being drunk with wine and filled with the Spirit? (See Eph. v:18.)

(17.) Verses 7-8--What would you say was the nature of this voice? Was it subjective or objective?

(18.) To whom must we listen today as final authority in spiritual matters?

(19.) Verse 9--Why did Jesus tell them not to make known this experience until he was risen from the dead?

(20.) Are there spiritual experiences today that are better kept to ourselves?

(21.) Verse 10--Why were they so obtuse about what Jesus had told them of his coming death and resurrection?

(22.) Verses 11-13--In what way did Jesus mean that Elijah had come? Lesson for Sunday, Dec. 1, 1912. The Linnite Boy. Mark ix:14-29.

THE MODERN WOMAN.

What Helen Keller Has to Say About Them.

I am not disposed to praise the educated woman, as we commonly use the term. I find her narrow and lacking in vision. Few women whom I meet take a deep interest in the important questions of the day. They are bored by any problem not immediately related to their desires and ambitions. Their conversation is trivial and erratic. They do not consider a subject long enough to find out that they know nothing about it. How seldom does a college girl who has tasted philosophy and studied history relate philosophy and the chronicles of the past to the terrific processes of life which are making history every day? Her reputed practical judgment and swift sympathy seem to become imperceptive in the presence of any question that reaches to a wide horizon. Her mind works quickly so long as it follows a traditional groove. Lift her out of it and she becomes inert and without resource. Such a woman comes to the gravest responsibilities like the foolish virgins who hastened to the marriage with no oil in their lamps. She is not prepared for the battle of life. Before she knows it she may be in the midst of the fight, undisciplined and disorganized, struggling for all that is precious to her against an enemy whose position she has not reconnoitered. She sends her sons and daughters into the streets of life without the knowledge that protects. Ignorance gives her confidence, and she is fearless from want of understanding. --Helen Keller in Metropolitan.

When Shopping For Christmas.

When looking about for Christmas presents, and it is not a bit too early to begin this work, why not buy for a masculine relative or friend one of the new scissors cases, equipped with several pencils and a good fountain pen, or a sporty tie holder which comes this season in the guise of a utility bag. Both of these very useful gifts are to be seen in the illustration.

SCISSORS CASE AND TIE HOLDER.

The Kitchen Table.

When the kitchen table becomes spotted and discolored, it may be freshened with lemon. Cut a lemon in half and rub it over the entire surface of the wood.

Rinse well with clean water. The result will be a smooth, snow white top.

Dusty boards may be treated in the same manner.

Progressive Chinese Women.

Chinese women are now engaged in organizing a congress which has for its object the complete equality of the sexes and the suppression of polygamy, slavery and prostitution. The National Council of Chinese Women is to be organized in six sections, and branches will be established in every town throughout the empire.
