SUTHERLIN ITEMS GATH-ERED BY "LIVE WIRE".

Many New People Arrive At Sutherlin With View Of Locating.

Mr. Gleason and family, who recently came here in company with Mr. James and Glen Headley and families from Wilcox, Sask., are staying at the Inn until they build.

Mrs. P. A. Franz is enjoying a visit with her mother, Mrs. Howard, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Mrs. Howard says the climate here agrees with her and expects to make a long visit.

Morris Bishop, of Hastings, Neb., who had planned to make Sutherlin his home, and was about to ship his household goods in a car with Mr. Saucerman, suffered a stroke of paralysis and is in a hospital at Lincoln, Neb.

F. B. Walte has two houses under construction and are already rented. There isn't a vacant house in Sutherlin. A few good houses to rent ought to be a paying investment.

Mrs. E. J. Ortman and son visited friends in Roseburg while Prof. Ortman was in attendance at the institute.

Mrs. Sanford Hart went to Roseburg Thursday afternoon for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. George McCullough.

NOTICE TO POULTRYMEN.

There will be a meeting of the Douglas County Poultry Association Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the office of Kitchin & Black, the nurserymen, corner Cass and Jackson streets. Everybody belonging to the association, and those wishing to join are requested to be present. Refreshments. Remember this is important, as the show is Dec. 9-14, and we must get things in shape for a bigger and better show than last year.
E. E. WIMBERLY, Sec.

The guild met Monday afternoon at the parish. The ladies are very busy getting ready for the bazaar which will be held some time the first week in December. Two prizes are to be given, one for the best loaf of white bread and one for the best loaf cake.

Mr. and Mrs. James Headley and two children are guests at the N. K. Eby home for a few days. They recently came here from Wilcox, Sask. They have built a barn on their ranch and will live in it until they can get their house built.

The missionary society of the Presbyterian church met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. P. Stack. A large number were present. The topic was "World's Missionary Week". A few papers were read. Mrs. Cummings sang. The rest of the time was devoted to plans for the bazaar. The president Mrs. Hugh McClean, told the society they now numbered forty members, which was a pleasant surprise. Light refreshments were served.

YONCALLA ITEMS GATH-ERED BY CORRESPONDENT.

J. D. Wilson, of Yoncalla, Is Admitted To Mercy Hospital For Treatment.

Our school dads and ma'ams are attending the teachers' institute at Roseburg this week.

Miss Mabel Schindler has returned from Roseburg where she spent several days the guest of relatives and friends.

A. F. Stearns, of Oakland, was here on business the first of the week.

J. D. Wilson was admitted to Mercy hospital at Roseburg, from this place the first of the week, where he will undergo quite a serious operation within a few days. Mr. Wilson's many friends here wish him every success and a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Fannie Mulkey, of Salem, is visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Mortensen this week.

Cap. "Red" Peret visited points in the southern end of the county this week.

The many friends of Mrs. J. L. Callaway are pleased to learn that she arrived home safely and wish her a speedy recovery.

L. M. Rees, aged 82 years, underwent a very severe operation at Cottage Grove last week. At last reports Mr. Rees was doing nicely.

Boyd Bridges, of Oakland, was here on business the first of the week.

J. L. Applegate has returned from a visit at Astoria and Portland.

Mr. Toner, father of Mrs. George Cannon, of Hayhearst, passed away last week at his home in Lake City, Cal., being stricken with pneumonia. A daughter, Mrs. John Cannon, of that city, was first reported very low, but later reports are that she is improving.

"Web" Wise and Frank Fegles, of Draln, were here on business Wednesday.

Floyd Booth has sold his interest in the Booth farm near this city to his father, R. A. Booth, and has moved to Eugene to reside.

Mrs. Thomas Applegate received word a few days ago that her son-in-law, D. Crouch, of Springfield, has been stricken with small pox and that himself and family were under quarantine at their home.

Mrs. J. Stinnett and daughter, Ruby, who have been sojourning at Hoaglin for some time have returned to this place.

Mr. Cecil Gibler, of Roseburg, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. C. E. Drew, this week.

Reports from W. F. Lauman, who underwent an operation at the Good Samaritan hospital last week, are to the effect that he is doing nicely and a speedy recovery is anticipated.

M. Petrie returned the first of the week to Roseburg, after several days spent with relatives here.

John Sutherlin was at Roseburg on business the first of the week.

Homer Mansfield is in Southern Oregon on business this week.

Saturday night dances furnish pastime and amusement for lovers of the fantastic toe here. In fact dancing is the chief medium of amusement, and is indulged in by young, middle aged and old people, and everyone has a good social time. Of late, however some "rogers" from other places have attended the Saturday night hops and have acted in a manner anything but gentlemanly and lady like, not only spoiling their own good time, but putting a damper on the happy spirits of other attendants. Visitors at our Saturday evening dances are always welcome so long as the rules of decency and order are observed but unless those attending care to observe the rights of others they will confer a favor on those who want good clean dances by being conspicuous by their absence.

is to be planted to apples and pears this fall and early next spring in Green Valley. The Harding Co. will also plant 100 acres to apples.

Mrs. Dr. Bradburn entertained a party of 14 at dinner Sunday.

The many friends of Mrs. Henry Landers will be pleased to learn that she is rapidly recovering from a serious attack of pneumonia.

The Green school will be closed the balance of this week, on account of the teachers' institute.

Mr. Lyman Skinner has been in Portland the past week attending the Land Products Show.

The main road leading to Green Station, recently gravelled by the fruit men in this vicinity, is in almost an impassible condition since the recent heavy rains, and should be taken over by the county and put in decent repair. The heavy fruit traffic over the road this fall certainly entitled it to some consideration at the hands of the county, and Judge Wonacott can earn the everlasting gratitude of the people of this vicinity if he will come out here and investigate conditions. There is a sentiment among the tax payers who patronize the road in favor of the county taking hold of the work.
