RESOLUTIONS ARE ADOPTED BY COUNTY TEACHERS.

Institute Closes Last Evening After Most Successful Meeting in the History Of Douglas County

Just prior to adjournment last evening the teachers of Douglas county, in annual institute, passed a resolution in which they recommended that the state text book commission be composed of educators, teachers or supervisors who are actively engaged in school work, and further that the membership of this commission should represent as equally as possible the various grades, from the first to twelfth, inclusive, and that women should be given representation on this commission. This resolution was adopted by the unanimous vote of the assemblage without comment or discussion. A second resolution thanking the various persons responsible for the success of the institute was also adopted late yesterday.

It follows in detail: "We, the public school teachers of Douglas county, Oregon, in annual institute assembled, do hereby extend a vote of thanks to the following: To Prof. Thurman Chaney, whose unsparing efforts have largely contributed to render this the best institute ever held in Douglas county; to Dr. Joseph Schafer, whose practical addresses were a real dynamic force in the convention, and were much appreciated by all who heard them; to Prof. A. H. Chamberlain, of San Francisco, whose instruction was likewise very practical and helpful; to Miss Mamie Fulkerson, of Salem, who gave excellent instruction in primary work; to Miss Christine Tingling, who very ably championed the cause of true temperance in the public schools; to our former state superintendent, Prof. Ackerman, who is, as ever, held in high esteem by the teachers of Oregon; to Miss Campbell, of the Prang Co., who as art demonstrator exhibited work that was of much interest and benefit to many of our teachers; to E. F. Carlton, assistant state superintendent, and in this connection we desire to express sympathy for the recent misfortune of our state superintendent, Prof. Alderman, and our profound regret at his absence from this convention. Our thanks are due Prof. J. W. Groves, superintendent of the schools of this city, who very ably occupied several periods; to Chas. H. Jones, editor of the Oregon Teachers Monthly, who acted as choir master; also to Miss Dolan the pianist; to Mrs. Stanley Cavalah, who rendered several choice selections upon the piano; to Mr. Sheriff, whose marvelous whistling well merited the vehement encore which it received. We would not omit to mention the ladies of the W. C. T. U., who tendered a kind reception to us, and our Methodist friends who kindly furnished the church in which the same was held. Our thanks are due the press of the city for quite full reports of our proceedings from day to day; and to all others, not mentioned by name, who have shown us kindness in any respect. And, further, we desire to express our sincere thanks to Prof. Chaney for many courtesies rendered us during his term of office, soon to close, and hereby wish to assure him of our kindly and continued regard."

MAKE US PROVE IT WHEN WE SAY TO YOU

in an advertisement that we can and will sell you better shoes for the money than you can get elsewhere, MAKE US PROVE IT. Make us "show you."

When any dealer claims to give you better values than someone else make him show you what he will give you for a given sum, then come here, and see the quality of shoes that we will give you for the same amount.

We like to have you COMPARE our shoes with what you can get elsewhere. We say to you "take this pair of shoes, match it" in value if you can, and we'll buy it back from you.

We expect every man of good sound judgment to buy his shoes where he can get the most actual value for the money he pays.

If we can show you that our shoes, at our prices, are the best for you to buy, we expect to sell you. On the other hand, if you can find anybody, any where, who will give you more actual value for your money, we expect you to get your shoes there.

We wish that we could show every critical, discriminating shoe buyer in Roseburg this winter the unusual values we have to offer. If we could we'd do all the shoe business in town. We're ready to show you.
