

LOCAL NEWS.

F. M. Shillings spent yesterday at Greens visiting with friends.

W. R. Hillek, of Hoaglin, was a business visitor in Roseburg today.

E. C. Sklener and wife spent Sunday at Greens visiting with relatives.

Austin Wilson, of Riddle, was a visitor in Roseburg for a few hours yesterday.

G. A. Taggart, of Oakland, spent Sunday in Roseburg visiting with friends.

John Alkin and wife left for Portland yesterday where they will spend a few days.

Lafe Engles and daughter, Miss Grace, of Peol, arrived here Saturday to spend Sunday.

Max Kruse and wife, of Cornutt, spent Saturday and Sunday in Roseburg visiting with friends.

Mrs. H. Faulkner has returned from Eugene where she spent a few days visiting with her daughter.

J. M. Engle, the Oakland promoter, came over Saturday evening to look after business interests.

J. H. Goe, of Pardue, was a visitor in Roseburg yesterday. He was registered at the Grand hotel.

Z. C. Spears, of Remote, Coos county, spent yesterday in Roseburg visiting with friends.

W. B. McMillan, of Hoaglin, arrived in town yesterday to remain until after Thanksgiving.

Mrs. D. Y. Allison returned here last evening after a few days spent at Cottage Grove visiting with friends.

Miss Audrey Cavender returned here last evening after a few days spent at Portland where she visited with friends.

John W. Coleman, of Coos county, passed through Roseburg this morning enroute to Iowa where he will spend the winter.

W. C. Harding and wife returned here yesterday after a few days spent at Portland where they attended the Northwest Land Show.

Mrs. Edward Singleton returned here last evening after a couple of days spent at Wilbur and vicinity visiting with friends.

Mrs. W. C. Bates and Miss Wave Chancy, neices of County School Superintendent Thurman Chaney, returned to their homes at Myrtle Creek yesterday after a few days spent in Roseburg.

A. D. Bradley and Edward Payton left here this morning for Klamath Falls where they will spend the week hunting ducks.

Mrs. Clayton Negley has returned from Oakland where she was summoned by a message announcing the serious illness of a relative.

W. S. Swaggert, of Portland, arrived in Roseburg yesterday to join his wife who is at present visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Freeman.

Mrs. A. M. Kendrick left this morning for Loralne, Lane county, in response to a message announcing the serious illness of her brother-in-law.

Frank E. Alley returned here yesterday after a few days spent at Portland attending the annual Land Show. Mr. Alley says the exhibits far surpassed expectations and represented nearly every product of the soil.

Mrs. S. A. Sanford entertained a number of friends at her home on Lane street Saturday evening. Cards comprised the chief amusement of the evening, followed by light refreshments. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

N. LaRaut leaves here tomorrow for Klamath Falls where he will spend the winter. Mrs. LaRaut and children preceded him to Klamath Falls several weeks ago. One of Mr. LaRaut's children is a sufferer of asthma, and it is believed the change of climate will result beneficially.

Constable Edward Singleton returned here last evening after a couple of days spent at Portland and Salem. He was accompanied home by his daughter, Mrs. Herbert Ogden, who will remain here until after Thanksgiving. Mrs. Ogden is at present living at Portland where her husband is employed as engineer by the Southern Pacific Company.

Attorney George Neuner returned here yesterday after a couple of days spent at Salem and Portland. Attorney Neuner will return to Salem on December 3, when the case of the State vs. Walter Scott will be reviewed. The case should have come up for hearing before the supreme court on Saturday, but was postponed upon request of the presiding judge.

F. H. Leadbetter, of Portland, owner of the Leadbetter tracts in Edenbower, spent Sunday in Roseburg attending to business interests. Mr. Leadbetter recently returned to Portland after several weeks spent in the East where he did considerable advertising for Oregon. Mr. Leadbetter says hundreds of tourists contemplate coming West next spring, many of whom will eventually find their way to the Umpqua valley.

LOCAL NEWS.

G. M. Cowan, of Drew, was a business visitor for a few hours in Roseburg today.

William Jackson, the Looking Glass farmer, spent the day in Roseburg looking after business interests.

S. B. Crouch, the Sheridan street hardware merchant, returned here last evening from Oakland where his brother is said to be very ill.

Miss Zena Dement returned to her home at Myrtle Creek yesterday after a few days spent in Roseburg visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hermann.

Mr. Houghton, of the Clarke & Henry Construction Company, arrived here this morning from Eugene to spend a couple of days looking after business interests for his company.

Mrs. A. E. Simmonds and two grandchildren, Charles and Evelyn Jackson, arrived here last evening from Marshfield and left for Greens this morning where they will spend a few days visiting with the former's daughter, Mrs. L. E. Weatherford.

George Burnette, local agent for the Ford automobile, left for Medford and Ashland last night where he has business matters needing his attention. From the latter city he goes to Klamath Falls where he will join A. D. Braley and Edward Payton and enjoy a week's hunt.

J. W. Oliver, of the Himes & Oliver Real Estate Company, returned here this morning after a couple of days spent at Portland attending the Northwest Land Show. Mr. Himes, who also attended the show will return here tonight or tomorrow.

Glenn H. Taylor, local agent for the Horticultural Fire Relief Insurance Company, of Oregon, this morning received a check covering the company's share of the loss sustained by E. C. Benson in the recent fire which gutted the offices on the upper floor of the Hamilton building.

Sylvester Ford, of Pullman Washington, after a few days spent with relatives in Roseburg, resumed his journey to Los Angeles this morning. He expects to reach his destination by Wednesday afternoon, in time to actively participate in Thanksgiving festivities with friends in the southern city.

School Clerk George Neuner this morning posted notices calling a special election of the qualified voters of Roseburg school district No. 4, to be held at the Lane school building at two o'clock in the afternoon of December 7. The election is called for the purpose of providing a tax

Help Wanted!

MEN AND BOYS in any number to take advantage of our removal sale. Prices slaughtered. Nothing held back.

Help Us Move

and we'll help you get good goods, at less money than you have ever before been able to secure. Don't fail to take advantage of this opportunity to save money.

SIMON CARO

for the maintenance of the local schools during the coming year.

A fine big Xmas book is the December Ladies' Home Journal. Space prevents telling its many splendid features. The Christmas story, "The Tenth and The Lord Giveth," is alone worth the price, 15c at the Roseburg Book Store.

The ladies of the Catholic church report excellent returns from their sale of fancy articles at the Burr music store, on Saturday, as well as from their dinners served in the parish house, of St. George's church. Not an article was left unsold when the ladies ceased work at the sale Saturday night, neither could the ladies have supplied a larger crowd at their dinners.

John W. Crouch, aged 52 years, and a life-long resident of Oakland, Douglas county, died shortly after 10 o'clock last night after a lingering illness. The funeral will be held at the family home at Oakland tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, interment of the remains following in the Odd Fellows' cemetery. Other than his wife, Mr. Crouch is survived by his mother, Mrs. Malinda Crouch; five brothers, S. B. Crouch, of Roseburg; Joseph M. Crouch, W. N. Crouch, J. P. Crouch, of Oakland, and F. J. Crouch, of Portland; three sisters, Mrs. G. A. Archambeau, of Dunsmuir, Cal.; Mrs. L. B. Archambeau, of Eugene; and Mrs. George Evans, of Sutherlin. Mr. Crouch was a member of the Moose and Eagle lodges, of Roseburg. Mr. Crouch was well and favorably known in Oakland and vicinity and his many friends regret to learn of his death.

LOCAL NEWS.

The Roseburg Book store always sell goods of good quality at lowest prices.

S. J. Jones spent the afternoon at Sutherlin looking after business matters.

Ralph Crombie, of Glide, spent the day in Roseburg attending to various business interests.

According to letters recently received from Attorney F. G. Miceli and wife, and postmarked in Italy, the couple should arrive home not later than February 1.

The work of adding a second story to the meat market of George Kohlhaugen, on Jackson street, is progressing nicely and the addition should be completed and in readiness for occupancy at an early date. Entrance to the second story will be gained through a doorway leading from the commercial club building.

The Franciscan Fathers wish to thankfully acknowledge the generous patronage given on Saturday to the sale of work and dinner conducted by the ladies of the St. Joseph's Altar Society. The proceeds have proved satisfactory, and the Catholic Ladies as well as their Priests assure their many helpers of their best thanks.

B. W. Bates, the printer, has leased the ground floor store room, situated in the Masonic building at the corner of Cass and Main streets, for a period of five years and will assume possession of the same on December 15. He will add to his present equipment two new presses as well as considerable other material.

H. T. Coleman, wife and daughter are here from the Palouse country, Wash., and will remain for the winter, as Mr. Coleman is looking for a more healthful climate and Myrtle Creek is the last word for healthfulness. The Colemans are for the present visiting Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Knight. Mr. Knight and Mrs. Coleman are brother and sister. — Myrtle Creek Mail.

E. L. French is planning to close down the prune packing plant for the season in time to spend Thanksgiving at home. Not a great deal of business has been done since the packing plant re-opened. While there are many prunes yet in the country the prices are so unsatisfactory that the growers will not sell. The prunes from the Johns Brothers ranch in Missouri Bottom have been packed this week and will be held by the owners for a future market. — Myrtle Creek Mail.

The members of the Roseburg Gun Club held another of their interesting shoots on the club range north of the city yesterday afternoon. In the regular shoot the following scores were recorded: F. Hoolihan, of the DuPont Powder Company, 93. Harry Pearce 70, John Enger 82, Ben Maddox 72, Fred Tolles 66, A. D. Bradley 82, James Donahew 78, F. Dickson 74, K. L. Miller 78, Roy Roadman 84. In addition to this contest, a handicap match was held under the auspices of Mr. Hoolihan, who posted a beautiful pearl handle knife as a prize. This knife was won by A. D. Bradley, who shattered 46 out of 50 birds. The next shoot of the club will be held Thanksgiving forenoon, and from reports, the event will be attended by a large crowd. Contestants in this shoot will be allowed to use either shotgun or rifle. Turkeys will be awarded to the winners.

Attorney C. I. Leavengood and wife, of Myrtle Creek, were visitors in Roseburg for a few hours this afternoon.

Mr. Steel, of Beaverton, left for her home this morning after a brief visit in Roseburg with a relative, Mrs. May Jackson.

For mill work and high quality lumber of all kinds, call on the J. G. Flook Lumber Company, Phone 100. "We deliver the goods" if

Mr. West, of Eugene, arrived here this afternoon from Medford to join Mrs. West who is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barnard.

Louis Himes, of the firm of Himes & Oliver, returned here this morning after a few days spent at Portland attending the Northwest Land Show.

G. W. Gage, of Dillard, left here this afternoon for Portland where he is serving on the federal jury during the present term of the federal court.

Every barber shop in Roseburg will be closed all day Thanksgiving in order to give the employees an opportunity to enjoy the day with their respective families.

Mrs. Peter Lurch had the good fortune of winning the beautiful water color painted and presented by Mrs. J. H. Bartholomay, while the Fates of the Fair, very appropriately sent Mrs. Germain's lovely pillow to the Soldiers' Home to make Jerry Buckley's easy chair still more comfortable.

DAILY WEATHER REPORT.

U. S. Weather Bureau, local office, Roseburg, Ore., 24 hours ending 5 a. m., November 25, 1912.

Precipitation in inches and hundredths:
Highest temperature yesterday	44
Lowest temperature last night	41
Precipitation, last 24 hours	0
Total precipitation since first of month	4.98
Normal precip. for this month	4.37
Total precip. from Sep. 1, 1912, to date	8.95
Average precip. since September 1, 1877	7.20
Total excess precipitation from Sep. 1, 1912	1.89
Average precipitation for 34 wet seasons, (Sep. to May inclusive)	32.36

WILLIAM BELL Observer.

WANTED—Short hour waitress. Call at Everybody's Cafe. n27

FOR SALE—Fireless Cooker, "Caloric," nearly new, bargain price Call at 137 No. Main St. n30

TAKEN UP—One red and white cow, branded with what appears to be J on right hip. Cow can be seen at the Harper place in North Roseburg. Owner is requested to call, pay charges and take animal away. Chas. Peavy. 560-d1

AN INVESTMENT—Several lots that are unequalled in the city for beautiful situation. Command view of entire valley and the city. A bearing fruit of choice. This is offered for less than inch inferior property. Valuation surely advance, and the party who buys now can make well on his investment. Only a few minutes' walk from center of city, and near paved district. Inquire News office for particulars. 561-1f

Thanksgiving Sale

The Bellow's Store Co.

NOVEMBER CLEAN-UP SALE

Everything in the store at Reduced Prices. Nothing reserved. This store has a reputation for backing up its ads. Come now and get the benefit of an early selection.