

VICE SCANDAL

Promised Congressional Investigation By Lafferty

LYNCHERS ROBBED OF PLEASURE

Intended Victim Dying from Wounds—Socialist Newspaper Exposes Germany's Alleged War Scheme for Raising Forty Million.

(Special to The Evening News.)
PORTLAND, Nov. 27.—The vice scandal that has convulsed Portland during the past two weeks has aroused the investigative spirit in Congressman Lafferty, who now announces that he will ask congress to institute an investigation of the alleged nation-wide vice scandal, which recently resulted in the arrests of prominent men of this city charged with ruining boys. Lafferty says that there is substantial evidence that a well organized vice ring is nation wide in its manipulations, and he will introduce a bill at the next session asking for the appointment of a special congressional committee to examine into conditions that are believed to exist.

Intended Victim Already Dying.
PALM OLIVE, Miss., Nov. 27.—A mob that was intent on lynching C. W. Treadway temporarily postponed the pleasure today on discovering that their intended victim was probably dying from wounds received in a gun fight, Monday night Treadway and his sons engaged in a revolver duel with deputy sheriffs. The mob determined to hang Treadway, and went to his home for the purpose, but were told the man was dying. The self-imposed executors

NO PAPER THANKSGIVING.

In order to give The News' force ample opportunity to enjoy the pleasures of Thanksgiving Day, no paper will be issued tomorrow.

Alleges War Is Contemplated.

BERLIN, Nov. 27.—The Vorwarts, a socialist newspaper, makes the startling declaration today that a $40,000,000 fund provided for in the new budget under the heading of "General Finances for Administration Purposes," is really intended to pay for clothing, provisions for men and horses, and general army and navy expenses in event of the outbreak of war.

Attend Senator's Funeral.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—President Taft, members of the supreme court, many congressmen and foreign diplomats were present at the funeral of Senator Rayner, which was held at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Chaplain Pierce, of the senate, preached the funeral discourse. The pall bearers were men who were associates of the deceased senator in public life. Interment was in the Rock Creek cemetery.

Holland at Exposition.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 27.—President Moore, of the Panama Pacific Exposition, has received notice that Holland has accepted the invitation of President Taft to participate in the big show in 1915. Minister London, representing Holland, will arrive here December 9 to select a site for the national building.

Where Many Roseburg People Dine

Numerous Family Reunions are Planned for Thanksgiving—Others Will Spend the Day Quietly Elks Lodge to Hold Annual Feast.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Barker, at the corner of Lane and Kane streets, will be the scene of a delightful family reunion tomorrow. In all, fourteen persons will be present, including members of the Barker family and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Pengra will entertain Mr. and Mrs. Ole Olsson, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Miller and little son, and William Bell, at their home on South Main street tomorrow. A delicious turkey dinner will be served at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hume will entertain J. E. Enger and family at Thanksgiving dinner tomorrow.

Thomas Cobb and wife will entertain Dr. and Mrs. George E. Houck, at the former's home on South Main street tomorrow.

E. W. Page and wife of North Roseburg, will entertain S. E. Morse and daughter, Mrs. Carey, and Mrs. S. H. Morse and two children at their home tomorrow. A delicious Thanksgiving feast will be one of the important pleasures of the day.

H. M. Stephens, of Oakland, will be the guest of honor at a Thanksgiving spread to be served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Stephens, in West Roseburg, tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Marsters will spend Thanksgiving at their farm, in Happy Valley. Only members of the family will be present to partake of the appetizing turkey dinner to be prepared by Mrs. Marsters.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Dillard and two children will spend Thanksgiving at the home of F. M. Sebring, at Winchester.

Mrs. E. E. Pickens will entertain at a family reunion at her home on South Main street tomorrow. About twenty members of the family will be present, and a most enjoyable time is anticipated.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Fullerton and Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Fullerton leave for Riddle tomorrow morning where they will partake of Thanksgiving dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Nichols.

Dr. Hamilton will tomorrow entertain Henry Richardson and wife, Dr. Walter Hamilton and wife, and Charles Hamilton and wife. The home gathering will be held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Richardson, with whom Dr. Hamilton has been living since he lost his dwelling by fire.

R. M. Hall, the fruit grower, who is at present at the Grand hotel, will partake of Thanksgiving dinner at his ranch, the "Glenbrook Farm," near Riddle. Mr. Hall says he is having prepared a fine 10-pound turkey.

a product of Southern Douglas county.

N. Day and wife, of Grants Pass, arrived in Roseburg at noon today and will partake of Thanksgiving dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Root, on East Oak street.

Attorney Dexter Rice, wife and daughter will spend Thanksgiving at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Dolter.

Edward Singleton and wife will spend Thanksgiving at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Booth, near Yoncalla. They will leave for the latter city tomorrow morning.

F. L. Calkins and wife will entertain their son, Howard and wife at Thanksgiving dinner tomorrow.

The annual family reunion of the Bellows family will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bellows, in West Roseburg, tomorrow. Among the guests will be Roy Bellows and wife, Alva Bellows and family, and George Brown and family. The customary turkey dinner will be prepared and served under the direction of Mrs. Bellows. The Bellows family has held annual reunions for many years and tomorrow's event is looked forward to with delight by those directly interested.

Rev. K. M. Mears will be entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hughes tomorrow.

Attorney Albert Abraham and family leave for Portland tonight where they will partake of Thanksgiving dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Mack.

M. F. Rice and wife will entertain at Thanksgiving dinner Mr. and Mrs. Osborn, the former a dispatcher at the local Southern-Pacific railroad offices.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haynes will entertain at Thanksgiving dinner Mrs. Hayne's mother, Mrs. Carrie Haynes, and J. W. Perkins and wife.

J. D. Zurcher, of the Commercial Abstract Company, will tomorrow entertain Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Walsh and the former's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Strong and the former's mother, Mrs. B. W. Strong will spend Thanksgiving at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Metz.

County Judge G. W. Wonecott and wife will entertain their son, Charles Wonecott, wife and two children, and their daughter, Mrs. Glover, of San Francisco, at a Thanksgiving dinner tomorrow. Mr. and Mrs. Wonecott and children have already arrived from Portland, while Mrs. Glover is expected here tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Wilson will tomorrow entertain their daughter, Miss Mildred, who is attending the University of Oregon, and two of her young lady friends, Misses Maud and Marie Kincaid. The young

(Continued on page 4.)

AUSTRIA HOLDS

Out Against Arbitration Of Serbia Disputes

WARCLOUDS STILL HOVERING NEAR

Turkey Rejects Bulgarian Proposals Peace—Counter Proposition Offered—Fighting At Adrianople—City Burning.

BERLIN, Nov. 27.—Germany submitted a proposition to Austria wherein it was proposed that the Austria-Serbia dispute be referred to an international tribunal for adjustment. The Austrian government has rejected the suggestion, evidently preferring to settle the disagreement in her own way.

Serbia Must Give In.

PARIS, Nov. 27.—Dispatches to the Morning Matin from Vienna, Austria, quotes Foreign Minister Berchtold as saying that war between Austria and Serbia, and perhaps a general European entanglement, is inevitable unless Serbia submits to the Balkan peace proposals of Austria.

Turkey Rejects Proposals.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 27.—Nasim Pasha, representing Turkey, has rejected the peace proposals offered by Bulgaria. In view of this fact General Sayoff, Bulgarian plenipotentiary, has agreed to consider proposals from Turkey.

Adrianople Burning.

SOPIA, Nov. 27.—Fighting is again progressing around Adrianople, despite the peace negotiations under consideration. Reports state that Adrianople is burning.

Flurry on Bourse.

PARIS, Nov. 27.—Reports from Sebastopol state that Russian transports for the purpose of moving troops are assembling in the Black Sea.

Mutiny Executed.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 27.—General strikes have been declared among sailors of the czar's fleet on account of the execution of eleven members of the Black Sea fleet for mutiny. Four hundred sailors have been transferred from the fleet to Ravel and Vladivostok.

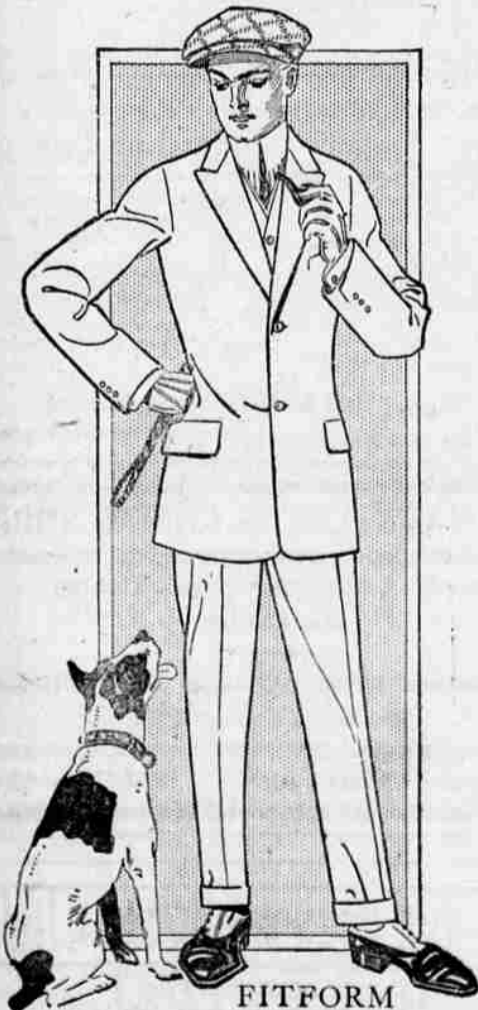

A. C. POSEY, M. D.

Specialist for Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Diseases.

Eyes Fitted With Glasses
PARROT BUILDING
ROSEBURG, OREGON

Harth's Toggery

Wants You to Look!

Look at HARTH'S TOGGERY $15.00 Clothing—You'll readily see it's as good as any you are asked $20.00 for elsewhere. You will see, too, that the fabrics are made of wool; that the styles are good and that the tailoring is equal to that of higher priced garments.

Harth's Toggery

$15.00

Suits, Overcoats and Raincoats.

Are superior in fabric, style and tailoring to other clothing sold at the price. The HARTH'S TOGGERY system safeguards you in every way—in careful selection—in honest manufacture—in low price.

Your suit kept pressed FREE for you.

16,000 Automobile votes given with each $15.00 suit or overcoat.

Harth's Toggery, Inc.

Let us be Thankful.

