ably follow her husband some time late in the week.

The Occupation Tax will occupy the attention of the council tonight —but there will be a greater mystery occupying the attention of the audience occupying seats at the Palace theatre. It will cost thirty-five cents to occupy a seat and hear the Jennie Brice Case. Tonight, December 16.

D. N. Busenbark left for Wichita, Kansas, late Saturday evening where he will spend several weeks visiting with friends and relatives. Mr.
Busenbark formerly resided in Kansas and is looking forward to his visit there with delight.

If you are wanting something to send away for Xmas, don't fail to send the beautiful hand painted novelties, "Roseburg High School", penant calendars, Greetings from the City of Roses", Xmas letters, etc., with envelopes and boxes to match, for mailing with each article, at Graves Art Emporium.

A quiet wedding occurred at the offices of Justice of the Peace Reuben Marsters late Saturday, when Blanch Bates and J. E. VanCarman, both residents of Douglas county, were united in marriage. The wedding ceremony was performed by Justice Marsters and was witnessed by a few intimate friends of the contracting parties. Mr. and Mrs. Van-Carman will make their home in Roseburg where they have a host of friends and acquaintances.

IT'S A HOME YOU WANT—

When buying lots for a home you want the best. The difference of a few dollars cost between an unfavorable location and a locality that has everything to commend it, will not be considered by the discriminating buyer. All we ask is an opportunity to show your our properties.
Close in, within five minutes walk of school, land is rich river bottom and lies level, yet well drained. Particularly fine neighborhood, city water, lights and all conveniences.
Phone 212-L and we will call with auto and show you the properties.
C. D. MANARD.

MAKE YOUR PREMISES ATTRAC-TIVE

Has it ever occurred to you that you could add $500 in appearance to your home by giving the lawn a little better attention? A shade tree here, a flowering shrub there, a couple of roses of some good variety, perhaps a Wisteria or Clematis vine to relieve the plainness of some portion of the exterior of the house. Just a few things, don't crowd them, plant them NOW and a few months hence you will wonder why you had't done it long ago.

Notice our display right alongside the Roachdale store. We have some four-hundred different kinds of shade trees, shrubbery, vines and roses, every one of which is perfectly adapted to our climate and local conditions. We invite you to come and see them. We will be glad to tell you about them.

THE trouble with most practical gifts is that they carry no expression of sentiment, without which, any article no matter how useful or valuable, is undesirable for a Christmas Gift.

A piece of furniture from our store however combines every necessary feature of sentiment, good wishes, attractive comfort and utility.

If you will only look over our stock and see the many beautiful things that a few dollars will buy, you will at once appreciate the advantage of selecting at least a part of your Christmas things from our store.

They will bring more joy and lasting pleasure to the person who receives them than anything you can buy.
