J. M. Engle, the Oakland rancher, spent the day in Roseburg looking after business transactions.

A sure fly killer for cows, horses and other livestock for $1 a gallon at the Bee Hive, of course.

Mrs. Hastings, of Myrtle Creek, arrived here yesterday afternoon to spend a day or two visiting with her sister.

Jake Bitzer, who has been ill for some time past, was able to be about the streets in an invalid chair yesterday afternoon.

Waterman's Ideal fountain pens, a complete line to select from at the Roseburg Book Store. We give S. & H. Green trading stamps.

Mrs. Garnett and daughter, Miss Ethel, arrived here yesterday afternoon from Riddle to spend a few days visiting with George L. Menser.

Mrs. Scott Lander left for her home at Portland yesterday afternoon after a few days spent in Roseburg visiting with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Gilmore was this afternoon granted a decree of divorce from her husband. Desertion was the chief allegation upon which the complaint was based.

Mrs. Katie Loop left for her home at Bellingham, Washington, yesterday afternoon after a few days spent in Roseburg visiting with her son, W. D. Loop.

T. J. McCarthy, the bill poster, went to Sutherlin and Oakland yesterday afternoon to distribute posters announcing the big sale contemplated by the New York store.

J. W. Perkins leaves for Portland Tuesday evening after his Cadillac automobile, which was quite badly damaged a few weeks ago as the result of plunging down an embankment on the Melrose road.

Benjamin Huntington, Jr., who is school supervisor in Southern Douglas county, returned here yesterday afternoon after a couple of days spent at Days Creek and Tiller, where he went on official business.

Glen Negley, the plumber, today completed the task of installing the heating and plumbing appliances in three rooms to be occupied by the classes in domestic science and manual training in the Lane school building. Mr. Negley carried on his work in conjunction with Frank Clements, who had the contract for the carpenter work.

J. G. Lewis left for his home at Tacoma, Wash., this morning after several days spent here visiting with relatives. Mr. Lewis was a former resident of Roseburg, having left here about 26 years ago. During his recent visit here he was quite surprised at the many substantial improvements. Although doing nicely at Tacoma Mr. Lewis says he often longs to return to Roseburg where the climatic conditions are unequalled.

S. L. Wood arrived in Sutherlin the first of the week from Northfield, Minn., where Mrs. Wood and Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Glen are now located. Mr. Wood gave a most interesting account of the automobile trip made by himself and Mrs. Wood and Mr. and Mrs. Glen from Sutherlin to Boston and Cambridge, Mass., and other points east. He states they traveled over twelve thousand miles in their automobile, and the bad roads in various parts of the country was the cause of their paying large sums for tires. He says the worst roads in the country are not in Douglas county. That worse roads are found in other parts of Oregon, also in Nebraska and Wisconsin. Mr. Wood contemplates returning to the coast again with his family within the next year.—Sutherlin Sun.
