

PAY CONVICTS

Mew System in Ohio Institution Inaugurated.

TRIAL TRIP THROUGH CANAL

No Display Will Attend Event—Baby-Saving Show Proves Means of Help to Mothers.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 1.—Today was "pay-day" for convicts in the Ohio state penitentiary and the state reformatory. Beginning today inmates of these two institutions will have a "steady income" of from one to five cents an hour, according to the character, industrial efficiency and conduct of the prisoner. Ninety per cent of the prisoners' incomes will be turned over to their families or persons dependent upon them for their support.

Lodge Rallies From Operation.

NAHANT, Mass., Sept. 30.—Senator Lodge, who was operated on for gastric ulcer Friday last, is believed to be in a less critical condition today. A Boston specialist was summoned yesterday and passed the night by the bedside of his patient, who passed a comfortable night.

Shot by Divorced Wife.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 30.—Frank H. Ivy, a real estate dealer, was shot and probably fatally wounded early today by his divorced wife, Mrs. Edith M. Ivy. After the woman had fired the shot she dropped the revolver and fled. Ivy managed to reach the weapon as it lay smoking on the floor and took a flying shot at his former wife as she ran. The bullet inflicted a flesh wound in her thigh. The Iveys were divorced in 1904, and Ivy remarried. Jealousy was probably the cause of the shooting.

DRAIN ITEMS.

We had a rather hard rain last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Craig and Miss Hazel and Will Craig were over on Smith River camping out last week. Little Dubie Powell has been sick the past week, but is better now. Mrs. Ina Ginter, who has been with her sister, Mrs. Jessie McNeal, of Cottage Grove, returned home the first of last week. Mr. Frank Moreland (lately from Los Angeles) was out of town last week buying a horse and wagon and a fine milk cow. We are glad to see our old friends Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Cary back from Minnesota, where they have been on a visit. Will Taylor will haul some things out for Mr. E. J. Harris this week. Mr. Frank Moreland's sister and family came up from Los Angeles last week, and are over on Smith River with Mr. Moreland and family. Messrs. Fanning, Robbins, Latson, Jack Mattson and Ed. Sterling went over to South River by auto Tuesday to camp and hunt awhile. Mr. John V. Razor is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Craig. Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Ginter have just bought an organ for their daughter, Miss Ina. Messrs. Tracy, Lillard and Bassett have finished their silos. Mr. Curtis Nickerson and his brother-in-law, Mr. Sumner, and Mr. Len Krenson went over to Smith River this week to visit with the former at his home on South Fork. Rev. M. C. Davis was over on Smith River last Thursday holding meetings at the lower school house, S. S. was reorganized (both settlements combining) but the election of officers was postponed till the following Sunday. Mr. Davis expects to be back about the middle of October again, and as there are two other helpers in the field now, he hopes to be able to come regularly, as he has been appointed to take charge of the work in this portion of the state and the others to take the upper and lower divisions.

TRIAL PLANNED

Wholesale Murderer Must Answer His Accusers.

SIXTEEN MURDERS IN ALL

A. Wagner, School Teacher and Murderer, is a Puzzle to Physicians—Kills for Sweet Revenge.

BERLIN, Oct. 2.—Preparations were completed today for an early trial at Vaihingen, near Stuttgart, of A. Wagner, the wholesale murderer of Muhlhausen and Degerloch. Wagner is charged with sixteen murders, including those of his wife and four children, nine attempted murders and seven cases of arson. Wagner is a murder fiend almost without parallel in the annals of crime. On the night of September 5 he cut the throats of his wife and four children while sleeping, locked up the house, left a note that the family had gone away, went to the village of Muhlhausen, set fire to several houses and with two automatic revolvers shot and killed ten and wounded nearly a score of persons as the villagers rushed out of their houses. Wagner is a school teacher. He is a puzzle to physicians and psychologists alike. Medical authorities declare that he is sane and he himself denies vehemently that he was unbalanced when he committed the murders, on the contrary, he declared that he had planned and contemplated them for months. Wagner while school teacher in Muhlhausen betrayed a young girl and was compelled to marry her. Revenge for the "goosy about him" in connection with this affair is one of the reasons given by him for trying to "clean out the village." He shows no symptom of regret. When his hand which was partly covered by an axe blow from an infuriated villager, was being taken off, he shouted, "That is worse than murder. I did not hurt the people I killed half as badly."

COMMERCIALIZED EDUCATION.

This is recognized as an age of commercialism. As such, it is not strange that people regard the so-called free lecture or free demonstration as of little value, rather less than it is its just due usually. In order to keep up the lecture or Lyceum course that has been conducted by the Ministerial Union during the past few years, I have entered into a contract to bring six attractions to Roseburg during the season and see that the public has an opportunity to hear, see and support such a course. After working out the details as carefully as could be done, I am in a position to state that I have entered into an agreement to be responsible for financial support necessary to bring these attractions to Roseburg. This has been done in the belief that the citizens of Roseburg will assist in meeting the obligations of the engagements by buying enough season tickets and individual tickets to meet the expenses of the course. I wish to add a word in regard to the matter of the season ticket, by owning a season ticket you will become a partner in the concern and as a partner you will be more interested in the success of the entire course rather than in a part of it—those numbers in which you are individually interested. Most people care little for a post. I am firmly of the opinion that there are but a few people in Roseburg and vicinity who would regret having heard Edmund Vance Cooke. He appeals to all classes, not in all his songs, but in parts of his program. If you own a season ticket you will be more apt to hear all these entertainers and will therefore get greater good from the course. I wish to appeal to all to buy the season tickets and thus relieve the management of a great part of the burden of conducting the course. It is necessary to employ auditors to sell the season tickets on account of two little things for that work on the part of the manager. I shall have tickets with me for the convenience of those who may see me and wish to purchase them, and have arranged to have them on sale at the Marsters' Drug Co.

Trusting that the public will respond promptly to this appeal for cooperation, I am,

Very respectfully,
J. W. Groves, Manager.

BEAUTIFUL ENGLEWOOD RANCH

A splendid property, on the main Umpqua river, and having marvellously fertile soil and climate conditions, with splendid timber and excellent domestic water piped throughout house, barn and numerous lots and feed corrals. On account of the several surgical operations and the recent hospital experience of Mr. Engle, making it necessary for him to spend much of his time in hospitals, and for financial reasons, he has concluded to sell that splendid country estate. This is not an ordinary or even an average ranch; but has all the requirements of a first class country home, where one can have the maximum of both comfort and profit, and live there under excellent climatic and all other most satisfactory conditions. There are 870 acres, well improved and most productive, for general farming, stock, dairying and for all kinds of fruit and berries and is all garden land of the highest productiveness. Has about four miles of main Umpqua River frontage. The river bottom lands have twenty feet or more of excellent soil. No overflow. Soil on slopes and benches is also deep and rich, excellent for fruit and all farm and garden purposes.

The parks of spreading oak, and the fir forests, all in an excellent parking system, are the wonder and admiration of all nature-loving people who see this splendid ranch, which is in a class by itself. Write, phone or see J. M. Engle, or any of his family on the Englewood ranch for prices and terms, on part or all of the property. A very low price will be made for quick action. Don't miss the opportunity of your life to secure the best country home that may be found anywhere around the globe, ENGLE, Kellogg, Or.

GLASSES For Children

Not long now since school began. If your child needs glasses it is high time you were attending to the matter. To wait until they fall behind in their studies means suffering on their part, and less time for correct fitting. Bring them here any day, and rest assured they will be kindly, carefully, and scientifically treated.

What is the difference between an honest farmer and a thief?

One tills the soil, the other soils the till!

We dislike to mention the farmer with such a disreputable character, but the farmer shines in comparison. We want all farmers to know that we want their choice fat stock, hides and tallow for which we pay market price, cash.
