CITY NEWS

Charles E. Roberts and family have returned from Newport where they spent some time enjoying coast life.

John Hall, of Myrtle Creek, passed through here this afternoon en route to Salem where he will spend a few days attending the state fair.

Mrs. E. J. Davidson left for her home at Portland this afternoon after a few days spent at Winston visiting with her mother, Mrs. W. C. Winston.

H. L. Barkley, of Portland, left for his home at Portland this afternoon after a day spent in Roseburg attending to business matters. Although one of the most prominent democrats in the state Mr. Barkley says he will support District Attorney George M. Brown, of Roseburg, for attorney-general in the event the latter will concede to allow his name to go before the voters at the next general election. Mr. Barkley says Mr. Brown is recognized as one of the most able attorneys in the entire state, and would make a most efficient official. Mr. Barkley says the democrats as well as republicans would support Mr. Brown so well is he thought of throughout the entire state.

Mrs. C. D. Mahn and child returned to Oakland this afternoon after a few days spent in Roseburg visiting with relatives.

J. C. Hill, the strawberry grower, returned here this afternoon after a couple of days spent in the southern part of the county.

W. E. and J. F. Chastain, of Harborsburg, left for their homes this afternoon after a few days spent here visiting with their brother, L. H. Chastain, a patient at Mercy hospital.

P. E. Sweninger and wife left for their home at Elkton this afternoon after a few days spent in Roseburg. Mr. Sweninger's brother was recently dismissed from Mercy hospital where he was under the care of physicians for several weeks.

R. P. Hutton, assistant state secretary of the federated church in action against the saloon, spent the morning in Roseburg in the interest of his campaign. Mr. Hutton is a newspaper man and predicts that the United States will be legislated "dry" in the year 1923. To do this, Mr. Hutton says it will be necessary to pass an amendment to the constitution of the United States.

Mac, the tailor, can make you a suit of clothes any style you desire. You can see the goods manufactured into a suit if you wish. We make your suit in Roseburg, Oregon, not in the Windy City. We don't make cheap truck, but make good clothes any style you wish. We are tailors at 127 Jackson street.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the offices of Justice of the Peace Reuben Marsters this morning, when G. W. Simmonds, of Wilbur, and Miss Virginia Haight, of The Dalles, were united in marriage. Justice Marsters officiated. The happy couple left for Wilbur this afternoon where they will reside permanently.

City Attorney Albert Abraham this afternoon filed in the recorder's court an amended complaint in the case of the City of Roseburg vs. The Southern Pacific Company. The complaint was filed by the city attorney upon request of John Busenbark, who claims that the Southern Pacific Company blocked the Lane street crossing for more than 10 minutes. Under the city ordinance it is unlawful for the company to block any crossing within the city limits for a period of more than 10 minutes. In the specific case at issue it is claimed that the crossing was blocked for 13 minutes. The necessary legal paper will probably be served upon the head of the defendant company in Portland some time this week. The case will later be brought to an issue.
