S. A. Leatherwood remembered the printer in a very substantial manner Monday. "Uncle Sebe" is 78 years old, yet he works most every day and is as young as many men who have not yet passed the 50th milestone on life's highway.—Oakland Advance.

Buy bread made in Roseburg—none better. You could do your banking in Portland; laundry could be sent there; dry goods bought there—but it is not good business policy. Spend your money at home.

George Burnett has filed a suit in the justice court against Claud Smith and D. Howard, proprietors of the Roseburg garage. The plaintiff asks for an accounting. After considering the complaint Justice Marsters entered an order in the court journal in compliance with the request.

Four deer ventured from the woods south of town Tuesday afternoon and spent some time feeding on the lands of the J. F. Lutz Company just west of the depot. As there is a state law against shooting game within the city limits the animals were unmolested, though several sportsmen viewed the sight with eyes as large as cartwheels. The deer

Dr. George E. Houck reports that a number of contractors have secured the plans and specifications for the new armory to be erected in Roseburg and he anticipates that a number of bids will be received by the state military board on October 20. Among the contractors who would erect the structure are several Roseburg parties. As soon as the bids are opened and considered the contract for the work will probably be awarded. It is the intention of the state to complete the excavation work this fall, the remainder of the contract to be finished next summer. The armory will be situated on the former Marsters property, on Oak street.
