THE DEATH LIST TWENTYFIVE

Over Two Hundred Hurt—Several Fatally Injured—Sulzer Packs Goods and Prepares To Vacate Mansion.

MOBILE, Oct. 20.—In a railroad wreck at State Line, Miss., Sunday, a troop train on the Mobile & Ohio railroad crashed through a trestle, resulting in the death of 25 soldiers and the wounding of probably 100 others.

May Wish Him Dead.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 20.—Governor Sulzer, impeached for misconduct in office after a lengthy trial, was up early this morning to begin packing his goods preparatory to vacating the executive mansion.

Murphy's Feelings Hurt.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—Acting on the demand of Boss Murphy, the Tammany leader, Judge Malone today ordered a sweeping investigation by the grand jury of the charges made by John Purroy Mitchell.

IMPROVED HIS OPPORTUNITY. After Nine Years Results Prove Fruit Grower's Judgment Good.

Nine years ago Mr. George Best came into Douglas county and located finally in the Looking Glass valley, about eight miles from Roseburg.

This fine lot of fruit has been taken to New York parties, who know a good thing when they see it, and the price, although not stated, is said to be exceedingly satisfactory to Mr. Best.

MANY ARE GOING.

The committee in charge of the excursion to Sutherlin tomorrow report the sale of 175 tickets. This number will probably be increased considerably before tomorrow.

In a few average specimens of Newtons and Orleys this morning, and this fruit has been on display in The News office all day, receiving the admiration of everyone who takes an interest in this industry and who saw the apples shown here.

Alleged Huerta Will Be Candidate for Election.

FEDERAL REGULATION LIQUOR

Supreme Court Ruling In New Mexico Case Reverses District Court—Arsenic Found In Stomach.

(Special to The Evening News.)

VERA CRUZ, Oct. 20.—Despite all of his promises to the contrary, it is now considered practically certain that Huerta will be a candidate to succeed himself at the Mexican election scheduled for October 26, next Sunday.

Can Regulate Liquor Traffic.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The supreme court today upheld, in a decision handed down, the right of congress to admit New Mexico to statehood with the clause in the proposed constitution of the new state giving the federal government authority to restrict the liquor business in the former Indian lands of the state.

Arsenic Killed Eaton.

PLYMOUTH, Mass., Oct. 20.—Dramatic testimony to the defense was given today at the trial of Mrs. Eaton, charged with poisoning her husband, Admiral Eaton.

Professor Whitney, of Harvard, testified that he had examined the stomach of the infant adopted by the Eatons, but found no traces of OLD RESIDENT HERE.

E. E. Rose, nephew of the late Aaron Rose and prior to 50 years ago a resident of Roseburg, spent yesterday in this city visiting with old time friends. Mr. Rose and his wife have been residents of Myrtle point for many years past, and are en route to Needles, Cal., where they will visit with friends.

This disproved the charge made by Mrs. Eaton that her husband had poisoned the baby. Whitney said that he had also examined the stomach of Admiral Eaton, and testified that he found arsenic in practically every organ of the body that the drug could affect.

who has been confined in the county jail for several months on a charge of bootlegging, was released this morning by Sheriff Quine.

The prisoner's release was questioned on account of his health. Howard served nearly 200 days.

Howard, it will be remembered, is the fellow who published a letter in a local newspaper to the effect that he had purchased whiskey in 10 or 12 different resorts in this city.

When brought before the grand jury he refused to divulge the identity of the places referred to in his letter and was arrested on a charge of contempt of court.

He was given an indefinite sentence on this charge. Later he was convicted of bootlegging and was sentenced to a term of 180 days in jail and a fine of $200.

CITY NEWS.

D. N. Snyder, the Glendale lumberman, spent Saturday in Roseburg, returning to his home in the evening.

The semi-annual report in the estate of Samuel W. Smeed, deceased, was filed in the probate court this morning.

Mr. Stebenbauer, of San Francisco, arrived in Roseburg this morning to visit with his sister, Mrs. Alfred Wollenberg.

J. P. O'Neil, a clerk at the Osborn pharmacy, returned here yesterday after a few days spent at Portland and other northern cities.

Capt. C. E. Edwards has returned from Roseburg where he was a witness in a land case before the United States receiver.—Coos Bay Times.

The county teachers' institute begins here Wednesday and will continue until Friday night. It is expected that about 250 teachers will be present. Sessions will be held in the Lane school building.

County School Superintendent O. C. Brown and wife are very busy these days segregating and getting the library books in shape to forward to the several school districts of the county.

Inasmuch as there is no appropriation for distributing the books the school superintendent hopes that the teachers of the several districts will call at his office this week and claim their appointment of the same.

D. B. Burtell, of Minneapolis, Minn., arrived here today and is looking for a business location. Mr. Burtell is a merchant and for several years past has been engaged in the drygoods business in his home city.

He has tired of the winters, so he says, and desires to locate somewhere in Oregon. Next week, he says he will look over conditions here, and if he is satisfied he will engage in business.

According to Sheriff George Quine, who returned from Winnemucca, Nevada, late Saturday, Joe Morinos, who was sent to the state penitentiary from Douglas county in the year 1911 and who a few days ago stabbed a fellow prisoner there, was at one time confined in the county jail at Winnemucca on a charge of burglary.

Following his release there he came directly to Roseburg, where he robbed the Rhoades' second hand store. For the latter crime he was sentenced to a term of five years in the penitentiary.

Considerable excitement occurred on West Lane street yesterday afternoon, when a boy fell from the rear of Sheriff Quine's automobile to the pavement. The lad climbed on the rear of the sheriff's machine near the Southern Pacific railroad crossing, and after riding for a block lost his hold and fell to the pavement.

He was picked up and carried into a nearby residence, where he received medical attention. The boy was not run down by Sheriff Quine, as some thought, but merely fell from the rear of the car when he climbed to enjoy a ride.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Agnew, well known in Roseburg, and for the past two or three years living at West 376 1/2 block at 63d, expect to leave for the East Wednesday morning.

They will go via the Canadian Pacific, stopping at Portland and Seattle en route. At the latter city Mr. Agnew has a niece and nephew, who they will visit. They will spend some time with relatives in Illinois, and expect to be gone until spring, when they will return to Douglas county.

It was learned here today that Charles Grider, recently arrested at Winnemucca, Nevada, on a charge of non-support, was not lawfully married to the woman who caused the warrant to be issued for his arrest.

It is understood, however, that the officers have secured sufficient evidence to hold him on a much more serious charge than non-support. It may be possible that he will be turned over to the Federal officers for prosecution. In such event Grider will be taken to Portland instead of being held here.

First Camp at the Pole, April 21, 1908.

A Spot Where One's Shadow Is the Same Length Each Hour of the Twenty-Four

We had reached our destination. My relief was indescribable. The prize of an international marathon was ours. Pinning the Stars and Stripes to a tent-pole, I asserted the achievement in the name of the ninety millions of countrymen who swear fealty to that flag. And I felt a pride as I gazed at the white-and-crimson barred pinion, a pride which the claim of no second victor has ever taken from me.

I had scaled the world, and I stood at the pole!
