PRINCE OF TONIGHT GIVEN
PLEASE BY PRESS WHERE IT WAS SUCCESSFULLY STAGED

Pretty Chorus Girls and Snappy Music Assists in Entertaining the Audiences.

"The Prince of Tonight," in which Tom Arnold, supported by a large cast of principals and a big beauty chorus, will be seen at the Antlers Nov. 13, may be described as foam, frolic and fantasy. Adams, Hough and Howard are the celebrated trio who are responsible for this most popular performance of LeComte & Fleisher's offering, which has a count of two hundred and sixty times in Chicago, and shattered box office records in all the cities. The fascinating story of "The Prince of Tonight" combines modern characters and places with fantastic incidents and situations, making the whole the most original musical comedy in years. The music of Joseph E. Howard embraces the best compositions of his career. The name of Tom Arnold, in the title role, is sufficient guarantee of the character of the play. Mr. Arnold has been associated for several years with other Adams, Hough and Howard attractions, and is now scoring his greatest success in this delightful fantasy.

As the "Prince of Lunitania" Mr. Arnold is seen in a role which permits him to be both romantic and amusing. He is supported by one of the strongest supporting casts seen in musical comedy and a chorus excelled by none for their vim and dash. Not only are young and pretty girls required, but the men must come up to the standard of youth and good looks. Money has been spent freely to make this scenic production one of the most elaborate ever in the history of musical shows.

THE ROSEBURG PARENT-TEACHERS ORGANIZATION

No doubt every reader of this paragraph knows that there are three Parent-Teachers organizations in Roseburg and that all are open to additional membership. Membership is based upon an interest in the education of the children of the district.

All members of these organizations, all who are eligible to membership, and all persons in any way affected by the educational affairs of the town are invited to be in attendance at a joint meeting of these three organizations at the Lane school building on Tuesday evening, November 11th to hear Mrs. Millie R. Trumbull, secretary of the Child Labor Commission of the State of Oregon, discuss matters that will have a bearing upon the welfare of the children of this community. Eight o'clock is the hour for the meeting. Mrs. Trumbull will also speak at the Mental Culture Club on Tuesday afternoon.
