

Mr. and Mrs. G. N. W. Wilson, of Isadora, were in the city Saturday. They grow 14 pound turnips, three pound carrots and an abundance of the best celery and cauliflower. On the evening of the Fourth of July, Mr. Wilson sowed a field of oats and on the 12th day of this month harvested a bountiful crop of hay. He is always experimenting and some day expects to be the equal of Burbank, the wizard of the vegetable kingdom. He says plant the seed intelligently and Douglas county soil will do the rest.—Oakland Advance.

DIRTY PEOPLE

Are Held Responsible For Dirty Towns.

NOTED PHYSICIAN TALKS ON SUBJECT

A Dirty House Shows That The Tenant Is Dirty—Education Is Advanced As a Cure.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 21.—"Dirty people and dirty towns" is a subject handled without gloves by Dr. J. N. Hurty, State Health Commissioner, in an article prepared today for the United Press.

"The reason we have so many dirty towns is because there are so many dirty people," said Dr. Hurty. "Shall the dirty people be compelled by law to be clean? No, indeed, not unless their dirtiness threatens the health and comforts of others. The Scripture says: 'He who is filthy let him be filthy still.' Of course, what is the use to do otherwise. Compelling him who is filthy to be clean in person and premises will not make him clean in mind and soul. He'll be filthy still. We must teach cleanliness to the unclean. Then if they become clean and stay clean, it is because cleanliness is their nature.

"The town is a mirror. It reflects the people. A man who is clean in mind will be clean in person. He will have a clean front-yard and a clean back-yard. A littered dooryard and a dilapidated house reflect a littered and dilapidated mind.

"The reason we cannot make a silk purse out of a sow's ear is because it is a sow's ear. It is not silk. A naturally dirty man can not be made a clean man. Dirty towns will exist as long as the dirty people exist. We must start our future citizens right by giving more time to instructing young school children evil results of the crime of dirt."

For the next 60 days Dr. R. E. Hunt will give a premium with each case of horse dentistry which will entitle the holder of the first choice to $25 in merchandising at Pearce's harness shop. The holders of the tickets, not more than 100, will decide the choice among themselves by a popular vote. This offer and competition will close on December 31, 1913.
