ROBBERS LOOT RESTAURANT OWNED BY WILLIAM STAPLETON—GET MONEY

Enter Restaurant Through Rear Door—Shelves Are Striped of Pies and Cakes.

Some unknown person or persons last night forced entrance to the restaurant, conducted by William Stapleton and situated in the Haynes building, on North Jackson street, appropriated a quantity of goodies, about $1.25 in cash and escaped.

The theft was discovered this morning when Mr. Stapleton opened his establishment for the day's business. An investigation revealed the fact that the robbers had entered an adjoining room through a rear window, from which they walked into Stapleton's resort through an unlocked door.

The robbery was reported to the officers, who are now searching for the guilty parties.

DELIGHTFUL PARTY GIVEN BY MESDAMES BRADBURN, COLLIER AND ZURCHER

Yesterday afternoon was the second day of the Bradburn, Collier, Zurcher Thanksgiving party which was given at the Parish house. The same color scheme was carried out in the decorations as on the previous day, yellow, red and brown being the colors used, symbolic of the fall colors. Chains of paper turkeys in these colors were used extensively in the decorations, while the Thanksgiving feature was further employed by using large pumpkin bowls filled with red apples. As on the previous day progressive thimbles was the chief feature of the afternoon, and the wish bones, means used for winning the prize. Punch was dispensed from a prettily decorated table by Miss Mildred Wilson. On a beautiful table in the center of the room a minfature turkey was hitched to a pumpkin bowl filled with apples. The harness was of red satin ribbon. The prize a handsome cupid was won by Mrs. Buchanan.

A most tempting four-course luncheon was then served on small tables by four beautiful young ladies. In this the Thanksgiving idea was again predominant. Miss Walsh was at the piano while the luncheon was being served, and her music was much enjoyed.

There were present about sixty ladies, all of whom would readily concede that a prettier party had not been given in Roseburg for many months.

DETECTIVE SHOT

Colorado Strike Sympathizers Kills Sleuth.

THE IDENTITY OF SLAYER IS UNKNOWN

Homicide Occurred on Main Business Thoroughfare of City—Arrested Man Denies Shooting—No New Year Reception.

(Special to The Evening News.)

TRINIDAD, Nov. 21.—Following the killing of George Belcher, chief of the Baldwin-Feltz detective force in the Colorado coal regions, Trinidad was under martial law for a few hours today. Belcher was shot last night while standing in the center of the city. Near him, probably ten feet away, stood a group of miners, who he was apparently watching. Suddenly a shot rang out from the group and Belcher fell dead in his tracks. Louis Zancanell, an Austrian, was arrested for the murder, but he denies any knowledge of it. The police assert that the Austrian, as soon as he noted the result of his shot, tossed the smoking weapon into the treet, and that the killing is the result of a conspiracy among the miners to rid the community of the detective. Adjutant General Chase, commanding the militia in the strike bound district immediately ordered out his men and swept the streets with cavalry and infantry, driving all citizens indoors. He enforced military rule for a period of six hours, until he was fully satisfied that no other trouble was imminent.

Canadian Pacific Wreck.

WINNEPEG, Nov. 21.—Advices received here state that the Imperial Limited on the Canadian Pacific railway, was ditched near Caldwell, Ontario, early this morning. Fireman P. O'Conner was drowned. The engine pinnged over the embankment into Lake Superior, and O'Conner was pinned beneath the wreckage.

No New Year Reception.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—By announcing that there will be no New Year reception at the White House on January 1, President Wilson has broken another precedent which has stood for a hundred years. Instead of remaining to hold a reception, the president said that he would leave Washington for a brief holiday vacation.

MANY TURKEYS ARE SHIPPED FROM DOUGLAS COUNTY TODAY

Oakland Ships a Majority of The Birds—Local Buyers Find The Market Active.

As predicted in yesterday's issue of The News, today witnessed the shipment of no less than 10,000 turkey to distant markets. In Roseburg the purchasers consisted of George Stearns, of Oakland, Milledge and Pickens, Harvey and Eastman, Geo. Kohlhagen, Louis Kohlhagen, Louis Kohlhagen and Jack Dawson, of Roseburg.

Most of the birds were crated today and will be loaded on the cars tonight preparatory to shipment. The birds will be distributed among the Portland, Seattle and San Francisco markets.

Reports from Oakland and other towns throughout the county tend to indicate that the figures in yesterday's News were about correct. Today prices ranged from 19 to 21 cents, dressed.

All day long teams were lined in front of the several establishments dealing in turkeys, while the banks were kept busk cashing checks. It is estimated that fully $20,000 will be received by the raisers of the birds in this county.

CARD OF THANKS.

To the many friends whose sympathy and assistance was generously extended in the great affliction visited upon us, we wish to extend our sincere thanks, and especially do we mention the lodges and others who sent floral offerings on the occasion of the death of our son and brother.
