Quick Change Artist at The Antlers Theatre Wednesday and Thursday.

BIG ATTRACTION COMING TO THE ANTLERS THEATRE ON FRIDAY, DECEMBER 5

Kellogg-Haines Artists Are Booked by Manager Bloom of Antlers.

The five artists composing the Kellogg-Haines company, who entertained us during the week, left an impression behind them that will assure them a warm welcome when they come again. We need not tell them their program was enjoyed. They could not but feel the waves of sympathy that went to them from an audience that missed nothing all through the performance. From the opening quartette, "The Blue Danube Waltz," till the curtain went down on the second act from "Martha," it was a feast of good music, good taste and was a rare exhibition of stage presence. Everybody enjoyed Mr. Goldberg's rendition of the prologue "Pauline." He is a baritone of exceptional ability. The mixed quartette rendition of "Se Saron Rose," "Creole Love Song," "Where Are You Going, My Pretty Maid," and the "Lucia" sextette were enthusiastically received. We must not forget "Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star," which was genuinely clever. Miss Alice Magee sang with feeling the selection, "My Heart at Thy Dear Voice." We do not forget Mr. Breach for his rendition of the "Soul of the Old Piano," and the "Lawyer's Soliloquy." We think he is the best ever, and hope to hear him again. Of the five reserved, charming artists we have the pleasantest memories. They are gifted performers. They deserve the largest measure of recognition, for they are working in the interest of legitimate art as against the cheap and the vulgar. May their number become legion.—From Notre Dame Scholastic, January 21, 1911.
