MRS. PANKHURST AS SHE APPEARED ON HER ARRIVAL AT CHICAGO.

This photograph shows Mrs. Edeline Pankhurst upon her arrival in Chicago. She is wearing a long coat with which she was presented by the committee which met her at the station. As she emerged from the station she was greeted by the cheers of the throngs of women who had gathered to see her.

When interviewed Mrs. Pankhurst said: "We will have suffrage in England as soon as we can get rid of the present government. That will not be very long."

One of the men principally responsible for militancy in England is Lord Northcliffe and his learned mastery on journalism.—The Daily West.

CITY NEWS

Frank Brown spent the afternoon at Sutherland looking after business interests.

Dr. A. F. Sether is spending a couple of days at Portland looking after business matters.

Mrs. Lane Thornton, of Canas Valley, is spending a few days in Roseburg visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Faulkner.

William Cobb, of the Cobb Real Estate Company, left for Kennewick, Wash., this afternoon where he has business matters needing his attention.

The Douglas Creditors Association this afternoon filed a suit in the justice court against the Umpqua Cider and Vinegar Works. Plaintiffs seek to collect $53.25, alleged to be due F. H. Churchill, the hardware merchant, and B. W. Bates, the printer.

Work on the armory was halted for a brief time yesterday following the receipt of a telegram from State Architect Knighton to the effect that the walls did not conform to the plans and specifications. The matter was adjusted satisfactorily, however, and work proceeded.

Marshal Tom Williams this afternoon arrested nine hooligans who were found in a box car attached to an incoming freight train. The transients were locked in the city jail where they are being held until such time as the Southern Pacific employes can check over the contents of the car and thereby ascertain if anything is missing. (The men were discovered in the car by the conductor of the train, who locked the door pending the arrival of the train in the local yards.)

Upon motion of City Attorney Albert Abraham, the suit recently filed by the city against John Hunter was dismissed. In asking for dismissal of the action, the city attorney said Hunter had removed the debris complained of and there was no need for spending the taxpayers' money in prosecuting the case. The city attorney further informed the recorder that Hunter blamed the Clark & Henry Company for placing the rubbish on his property, and there was some doubt as to whether a conviction would be obtained on the charge set out in the complaint. The case against Hunter was filed several weeks ago at the instigation of G. W. Kazartee.
