BAPTIST YOUNG PEOPLE'S RALLY

Eugene, Springfield and Myrtle Creek Send Representatives.

The first midyear rally of the Umpqua Baptist Young People's Association has been in session the last two days at the Baptist church in this city. Four societies were represented in this conference, Eugene, Springfield, Myrtle Creek and Roseburg. Prominent among the out-of-town delegates were: Portland, Dr. J. D. Springston, Rev. O. C. Wright and Miss Mabel Lewis; Eugene, Miss Dena Marshall, Miss Mary Baker, Mr. Edwin Platts and Rev. H. W. Davis; Springfield, Harvey Chase, Walter Bailey, Etta Mitchell, Stella Mitchell, Truman Chase, Harold Chase; Myrtle Creek, Rev. D. B. Bowers.

Many interesting and important topics were discussed and many new plans adopted. Among these was a standard of excellence which the association recommended for adoption for each society. A running contest was planned based on the standard of excellence and a banner is to be given to the society which, at the end of six months, has the highest per cent of excellence.

The complete program follows: Tuesday, morning session, devotional meeting, Rev. D. B. Bowers; address of welcome, Edith Hopkins; response Truman Chase; report of secretary; report of societies.
