

BIG RECEPTION

At the Commercial Club Next Tuesday Night.

ALL CITIZENS ARE INVITED TO ATTEND

The House Committee Has Made Arrangements for Entertainment For All Who Will Attend.

The house committee of commercial club met last evening in solemn convocation and decided to hold at least one reception each month and possibly two in some months during the year of 1914.

The commercial club is a great factor in this community. Every citizen has his community at heart and the commercial side of life is the blood that makes Roseburg the place all love to see grow and prosper.

So come out next Tuesday and enjoy the music, which will start at 8:30 p. m. You can play croonole, rock, flinch, checkers, and if you like to play cards you can indulge to your heart's content.

A member of the house committee will greet you at the door and make you welcome. Another will see that you have all the "punch" you desire; a third will be floor manager and the fourth will see that all are engaged in some way that is pleasing to them.

Be sure and bring all the ladies you can for the committee wants as many men to attend as possible and where the ladies are they must be. Make your plans and get ready for the finest time you ever had in the old town and resolve that if you never have been here before and may never come again that you will attend this function and help to make it a success.

In conclusion the house committee wishes it understood that these functions are simply intended to increase interest in an institution which it believes is the most vital in any community. A good live commercial club will do more to make a city of Roseburg than anything so far devised by the brain of man. All are welcome, so come.

OUR NEW MINISTER AT MAJESTIC TONIGHT

"Our New Minister," written by Denman Thompson and Geo. W. Ryan and played for many years by Jess C. Conyers and his company, has been reproduced for the motion picture screen. In its motion picture version, a Kalem production in three parts, will be seen at Majestic for two days, Wednesday and Thursday.

force him from the village, but Strong defends him. Lem learns that his friend is threatened with dismissal because of friendship for him. Later Chapman's villainy is discovered and all ends well.

"Cupid and Three" a comedy well acted in which the "Tango" is introduced and high class vaudeville act—the Montgomerys, those classy entertainers. Keep your eyes open for Friday and Saturday show.

FEIN IS GUILTY

Such is the Verdict of a New York Jury.

FIVE YEARS IS MAXIMUM TERM

Five Persons Burn to Death in a Michigan Fire—Four People Are Killed When Boiler Explodes.

(Special to The Evening News.) NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—The notorious New York gangster, "Dopy Benny" Fein, was today convicted of attacking Sargeant Patrick Sheridan. The maximum sentence that can be imposed is five years in the penitentiary. Terrified by threats of other gunmen, the jurors in the case accepted the offer of presiding Judge Malone for police escort to their homes. Simultaneously with the conviction of Fein five gunmen entered the Bowery saloon known as "The Tab of Blood" and murdered the proprietor Thomas Murphy, who has been accused of "squealing" on the gang. Police say that the shooting was done by a man known as "Gyp the Blood," he having taken that name since the original "Gyp" was sent to prison some months ago. Five suspects were arrested.

Occupants Burned in Fire. ALPENA, Mich., Jan. 21.—Five persons were burned to death when the home of Sam Bloise, a laborer, was set afire by an exploding lamp. The dead are: Mrs. Sam Bloise and three children, Franz, aged six; Sidel, aged five; a baby of ten months; and Danato Dalzamo, aged thirty, a boarder. Bibbee saved two other children.

Four Persons Killed. OTTAWA, Jan. 21.—Four persons were instantly killed in a boiler explosion which wrecked the Howick hall, where the clatter fair was in progress. Scores escaped with severe cuts and bruises. Part of the boiler was hurled through the roof. The bodies of the victims were badly mangled.

FIVE MEASURES

Are Ready to Submit to Congress This Afternoon.

MILLIONAIRE WOULD TREAT CANCER

Plans to Erect Hospital Equipped With Radium—Captain and Crew of Seven Saved From Wrecked Boat.

(Special to The Evening News.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—The "Five Brothers" as Washington characterized the president's quintet of anti-trust bills, are ready for introduction to congress. They will be laid before the law makers this afternoon or tomorrow, the white house conference having approved them last night.

The bills purport as follows: Provision for an interstate trade commission with members on salaries of $10,000 each; prohibition of interlocking directorates of interstate corporations, railroads and national banks; explicit definition of what constitutes criminal conspiracy in the restraint of trade; definition of general trade relations in interstate business to prevent discrimination, and empowering the interstate commerce commission to direct railroads.

Will Erect Hospitals.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—President J. M. Flannery, of the Standard Chemical Company today told the house committee on mines and mining that an "aged millionaire" planned to build twenty hospitals at a cost of $15,000,000 for free treatment by radium for cancer. Each institution, he said, will be provided with five grams of radium. Flannery refused to disclose the identity of the millionaire, but intimated that it was neither Carnegie or Rockefeller. Mine Commissioner Henshaw, of Colorado, told the committee if radium lands are withdrawn the radium price will increase to half a million dollars per gram.

Captain and Crew Saved.

CHATHAM, Mass., Jan. 21.—Captain Hart, and a crew of seven were rescued from the two masted schooner, General Adelbert Ames, which was wrecked off Monomoy Point. The vessel threatens to break up.

Contest Peddlers Law.

PORTLAND, Jan. 21.—Declaring that the so-called peddlers law of the state of Oregon is discriminatory and that its enforcement means the violation of at least four points of the federal constitution, the executive officers of Multnomah, Clatsop and Hood River counties, have been enjoined from enforcement of the law in a suit filed in the federal court by attorneys of the Grand Union Tea Company, of New York. The peddlers law was passed by the legislature in 1909, and prohibits persons going through the country from taking orders for future delivery of goods to consumers without passing through the wholesalers or retail stores. It does not affect incorporated towns. Federal District Judge Wolverton has granted a temporary injunction and has set the hearing for January 30.

CITY NEWS.

Mrs. S. H. Morse this afternoon entertained 50 ladies at a dinner, at her beautiful home on South Stephens street. The decorations were beautiful.

Mrs. Myrtle Connor was brought here last evening from Calapoola and admitted to Mercy hospital where she is receiving medical treatment. She is being attended by Drs. Seely, Selher & Stewart.

The funeral of the late Mr. Parsons, who died in Edenbower yesterday after a lingering illness was held at the family residence this afternoon. Interment of the remains followed in the Masonic cemetery. Funeral services were conducted by members of the local Christian Science church.

TO BUILD BRIDGE

Across Umpqua River (Near Town of Kellogg.

COUNTY COURT MAKES AN ORDER

Convention of Road Supervisors of Douglas County Will Be Held in Roseburg On Saturday February 7.

Authorizing the construction of a bridge across the Umpqua river, at what is known as Dimmick's Ferry, near Kellogg; calling a special meeting of the road supervisors of Douglas county, and considering the advisability of erecting a home for the county indigents were the chief matters considered by the members of the county court prior to adjourning today.

The petition to build a bridge at Kellogg was presented by William Cobb during the present term of the county court and contained the signatures of about 1400 taxpayers of the county. The proposed bridge will be of about the same dimensions as the Dillard structure and estimates place the cost at approximately $35,000. In authorizing construction of the Kellogg bridge the court set out the fact that the Dimmick ferry was probably the most used of any in the county. It was also stated that the river was dangerous at that particular point and that a bridge was deemed necessary at this time.

The county engineer will probably prepare the plans and specifications for the bridge at once in order that some action may be taken by the court at the regular February term. The bridge will be of steel construction and will be strictly modern in every particular.

Road Supervisors Meet.

The court has called a road supervisor's convention, which will be held at the court house, in Roseburg, on Saturday, February 7, beginning at 10 o'clock in the morning. All road supervisors in Douglas county are urged to be present at this meeting, the county paying the actual expenses of those in attendance.

The purpose of the meeting is to discuss road matters, and if possible arrive at some uniform system of road building in this country. Men well versed in road construction will be present to address the road supervisors, and explain to them the chief essentials necessary in constructing a permanent highway.

To Erect Home.

The members of the court this morning received a sketch of the proposed home for county indigents, which is to be located on the property, a short distance east of the city. Until the plans and specifications are worked out the estimated cost of the structure cannot be determined. The proposed home to be modern in every particular, according to the members of the county court, and will be so equipped that the inmates may receive the best of care at the least possible expense.

A hospital will be one of the features of the structure.

This Tunnel Disaster Typical Of Your Blackest Forebodings

Did you ever fail to imagine when you went through a long tunnel what would happen if the tunnel caved in? The worst fatality of your imagination in this regard was in a large measure duplicated in actuality recently in Saxony. There a train pulled by two engines was partly buried by the collapse of a tunnel under the Harz mountains. Over a hundred persons were either killed or injured. The picture shows one of the engines sticking out from the mountain side and rescuers at work.
