Skull of Aviator Fractured-Picked Up From Water by Motor Launch-Navy Tug Is Missing.

(Special to The Evening News.) SAN DIEGO, Feb. 9 .- Lieutenant Henry B. Post, aged 28, of the army aviator corps, was killed here today, Post was maneuvering over the harbor in a Wright hydroplane, and had started, apparently, to glide from a height of about 500 feet to the water, when something went wrong with his machine and it turned completely over. Post either and navy department officials are beginning to fear that all have perished. The Potomac, which made an unsuccessful attempt to aid the fishing fleet imprisoned in the ice of the bay islands, has been several days overdue. There were forty men in the fishing fleet, and but little anx-lety is felt for them, as they could to start about August on his attempt to cross the antarctic region. His feat will be watched by the whole world. It is probable that Shackleton will take wingless aeroplanes that gilde on sleigh runners for the purpose of drawing his sleds. Whether he can keep his engines from freezing is the question. If he can perfect his dying motorsleighs he will have sounded the deathknell of the faithful Eskimo dogs.
