

"KODAKS" Eastman Photo Supplies, Developing and Printing Roseburg Book Company
For Amateurs. Picture Frames Made To Order.

A. J. LILBURN

FRANK L. LILBURN

A. J. LILBURN & SON

COMPLETE LINE OF

Furniture, Carpets, Rugs,
Draperies, Chinaware,
Hardware, Stoves, Ranges

IN FACT

Everything Necessary to Furnish the Home

CITY NEWS

J. B. Wright, of Glide, was a visitor in Roseburg for a few hours today.

Just arrived, another car load of genuine Rock Springs coal at Page's.

Lafe Engles, of Peel, came down last evening to look after various business matters.

Mayor Martin, of Myrtle Creek, spent the day in Roseburg attending to various business matters.

Charles Nail, justice of the peace at Glendale, spent the day in Roseburg looking after business affairs.

Harold Smith has returned from Eugene. His trial will probably be held in the circuit court during the present term.

The Richardson Art Embroidery Club will meet with Mrs. Ed. Neely, 859 Miller street, Wednesday, February 18.

If you need wood the Full Measure yard can fill your order with dry oak or fir. Phone 165. North Roseburg.

John Midland, of Staples, Minn., is spending a few days in Roseburg attending to business matters and visiting with friends.

T. R. Sheridan left for Portland last evening where his affairs are being investigated by the federal grand jury.

Roseburg Stamp Co.'s Trading checks have reduced the cost of buying for many. Ask for them everywhere you trade.

Amos Burke, A. G. Moore and H. E. Hayes were this morning appointed appraisers of the estate of Emanuel Bonhebrake, deceased.

Wanted—Large view lot on paved street, improved or unimproved, east of Main or south of Cass and east of Cobb. Will pay cash. Box 492. City. 147-4180

We have just received a fine lot of English walnut grafted on black walnut roots. We are offering these at very reasonable prices. Roseburg Nursery Co., Phone 152.

There will be no services at the Christian church Wednesday evening. All teachers and officers of the Sunday school are urged to be at the Baptist church Friday evening.

Harlan Faucher leaves here tomorrow for The Dalles where he has accepted a position with a garage concern. Mr. Faucher has lived here for five years and has many friends who regret to learn of his decision to locate elsewhere.

On Thursday evening the Roseburg and Dallas high school basketball teams will meet in one of the fastest games of the season. The game will no doubt be witnessed by a large crowd. It will be played at Sykes' rink.

L. P. Harrington, field worker in charge of the organization of the contests among the boys' and girls' industrial clubs of the state, addressed the pupils of the local schools Monday, and aroused great enthusiasm over the contests that will be conducted this season.—Grants Pass Courier.

Win. R. Jeffrey returned Monday from Roseburg, where he attended the dedication of the Methodist church Sunday. Mr. Jeffrey reports that the dedication drew a large attendance, there being about 1,000 present. Bishop Cooke, of Portland, and President Homan, of Willamette university, were among speakers there, besides Rev. Jeffrey. C. E. Wharton, a Methodist pastor in the Rogue River district, returned with

Mr. Jeffrey, stopping off here for a short time.—Grants Pass Courier.

Wm. F. Marsters, of Roseburg, is a visitor on Coos Bay.—Marshfield Record.

J. W. Hassell, of Dixonville, spent the day in Roseburg transacting business matters.

William Jackson, of Looking Glass, was a visitor in Roseburg for a few hours today.

Hank Jones, of Myrtle Creek, was a business visitor in Roseburg for a few hours today.

E. M. Ward, of Roseburg, spent Friday in Medford on business.—Medford Sun.

Hilda Hawkins, of Portland, is spending a few days in Roseburg visiting with friends.

Frederick T. Burdell, of Portland, was a business visitor in Roseburg for a few hours today.

J. A. Carey and Wash Moore, of Canyonville, were visitors in Roseburg for a few hours today.

Bertha M. Thomas, of Saginaw, Mich., was a visitor in Roseburg today. Her parents are residents of Yoncalla.

Mrs. A. Bursell, of Riddle, arrived yesterday for a few days' visit in the city with Mrs. E. M. Cox.—Medford Sun.

Mrs. Robertson, who was called here on account of the death of her mother, will return to Portland tomorrow evening.

D. N. Snyder, the Glendale lumberman, is spending a couple of days in Roseburg looking after business affairs.

A Parks, Joseph Murphy and Grafton Worthington were this morning appointed appraisers of the estate of J. E. Kyker, deceased.

S. A. Phillips announces the arrival of the new spring styles at his new place in the Kohlhaugen building next door to the Commercial Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis S. Dement, of Myrtle Point, who were married four days ago, were visitors in the city yesterday. They are on their honeymoon. They stopped at the St. Francis.—Albany Democrat.

B. F. Jones, the prominent Roseburg republican who has his eye on a seat in congress, was in Salem yesterday. He is getting ready to turn over the land office at Roseburg to his successor.—Salem Statesman.

The Francis E. Willard memorial service of the W. C. T. U. will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 in the Presbyterian church parlors. A very interesting program. Refreshments will be served. Everybody invited.

Mrs. Higgins, who has been spending the past few days in Roseburg, left for the south this morning. She is a daughter of Riley Cooley, who is accused of the murder of Thomas Van Peil, in Curry county, 18 years ago. Mrs. Higgins lives at San Francisco.

Recently near Canyonville two prospectors started to dig for gold on deeded land, but gave it up before reaching paying dirt. Three others within a few days took up the work where the first two had left off, and working the first day until dark found big prospects, but were forced to suspend operations for the night. One of the three, deserting his two partners and joining forces with another man, followed up the prospect and found a pocket that yielded about $1,000, and now trouble is threatening between the various parties over the ownership of the gold, and it is expected that the owners of the land will take a hand in the dispute and claim the yellow metal.—Portland Telegram.

CITY NEWS

Mrs. Herman Marsters arrived here from Riddle this afternoon.

Dr. Pearson, of Sutherlin, spent the day in Roseburg with friends.

H. A. Heavens, of Green, came up this morning to transact business matters.

Ana Hermann, of Myrtle Creek, and her aunt, Mrs. Kennedy, of California, arrived here this afternoon from the former place to spend a few days.

B. L. Dearling, of Vancouver, Wash., spent the day in Roseburg attending to various business matters.

Claud Cannon, who has been spending the past few days here expects to leave for Portland tomorrow or Thursday.

Mrs. S. S. Josephson left for Walla Walla, Wash., this afternoon where she will spend some time visiting with relatives.

Richard Morris traveling engineer for the Southern Pacific Company, spent the day in Roseburg looking after official matters.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Davis, of Myrtle Creek, the latter a sister of B. F. Chilson, arrived in the city today to attend the funeral of Mrs. Chilson tomorrow.

B. F. Jones, who is soon to retire from the local United States land office, has leased offices on the third floor of the Perkins building, where he will resume the practice of law. During Mr. Jones' absence the office will be in charge of F. L. Jones, his son.

Constable Edward Singleton this afternoon received a telegram from Oakland, California, to the effect that Mrs. William Booth, of Prineville, died there this morning following an operation. The body will probably be taken to Prineville for burial. Mrs. Booth is a sister-in-law of J. H. Booth, of this city. Mr. and Mrs. William Booth spent some time in Roseburg a few weeks ago, later going to California in hope of benefiting Mrs. Booth's health. She continued to grow worse there and finally an operation was deemed necessary.

The children's band, of the Draper Home, at Des Moines, Wash., played to a capacity house at the Antlers theatre last night. The program was one of the best ever heard in Roseburg, and ranked well with the productions of many of the professional companies visiting Roseburg. Each member of the cast, including 23 children ranging in age from 8 to 18 years, is an artist, and appeared perfectly at home in handling his or her lines. The attraction might be termed a musical comedy, including choice musical selections and unlimited comedy. The attraction gave general satisfaction here and should the troupe ever return to Roseburg they can be assured of a packed house. At the depot this morning the band entertained a large crowd pending the arrival of the train which was an hour late. For this the children received many dimes

TICKETS SELLING.

Tickets for the excursion to be operated between Roseburg and Eugene on Thursday are selling fast, and it is believed that fully 125 people will take advantage of the trip. In the event this number of tickets are sold a special train will be chartered. Otherwise the excursionists will travel on the local trains. Eugene is making elaborate preparations for the occasion, and it is urged that everyone who possibly can take advantage of the opportunity to display their interest in the future development of the state.

and nickels which were thrown "in the ring" by generous bystanders.

MAJESTIC THEATRE

ITS THE PLACE WHERE EVERYBODY GOES.

Tonight & Tuesday

Who Will Mary Marry

Being the Fifth Story. A Proposal Deferred. This is a dandy one. See it.

The Pay-As-You-Enter Man

In two Reels, Featuring E. H. Calvert.

"Nora's Boarders"

All Star Boarders Till New Landlady Came.

"Mutt and Jeff"

Original Comedy Drawn by Bud Fisher.

"Pathe's Weekly"

Its a Feature Itself.

Big Show at Small Prices.

5 cents-10 cents

COMING WEDNESDAY—

ONE DAY. "CHINESE DEATH THORN."

A Great Underworld Play.

THE LEADER

Always Leads in Correct Styles for the woman who would be Well Dressed

Tailored and Fancy Suits in a variety of beautiful shades and the finest materials.

Dashing effects in the new Sport Coats, Rich, handsome designs in Dress Coats.

Splendid assortment of Silk Petticoats in all the latest shades. Excellent in quality, and moderately priced.

Newest models in Gossard and Goodwin front lace Corsets for Spring of 1914.

A complete line of Stamped Embroidery Materials, D. M. C. Thread and Art Goods

CITY NEWS.

W. R. Vinson, of Coles Valley, spent the day in Roseburg attending to business matters.

Miss Buxton, of Brockway, was a visitor in Roseburg for a few hours this afternoon.

C. H. Arundel, of Myrtle Creek, spent the afternoon in Roseburg with friends.

Roy Kurtz left this morning for points in California where he will spend sometime.

J. J. Courtney and wife, of Sutherlin, spent the morning in Roseburg with friends.

Mrs. Burchfield returned to Winchester this afternoon after a couple of days spent here.

J. L. Singleton, of Oak Creek, spent the day in Roseburg attending to business matters.

Mrs. Emma Weatherford left for Portland this morning after visiting with friends and relatives.

Mrs. D. R. Shambrook left for Centralia, Wash., this afternoon where she will visit with her sister, Mrs. C. C. Thompson.

Earl Koplin, of Camas, Wash., is spending a few days in Roseburg visiting with friends and looking after business matters.

Elmer Longbrake and wife left for their home at Portland this afternoon after a few days spent in Roseburg visiting with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Clark.

FIREMEN NOT LABORERS.

SALEM, Feb. 17.—Holding that firemen and policemen of Portland are not laborers, but rather are officers, the supreme court in a decision handed down today declares that the eight hour law does not apply to them. Mayor Albee, who has theoretically been confined in jail on a complaint brought by State Labor Commissioner Hoff, was ordered released from custody.

WANTED—Girl or woman to do housework. Inquire 202 Brockway, or phone 202-J. 155-4f

FOR SALE—21 acre ranch, 1 mile from Roseburg, 12 acres cleared, part in cultivation, 2 acres just plowed ready for planting, 9 acres fine timber, 1/2 acre strawberries, also raspberries, loganberries, etc. Small house, barn and chicken house, 2 springs on place. Fine Jersey cow, 8-year-old mare, sound, gentle and true, 7 months old colt, single wagon, set of single harness, 24 White Leghorn hens. All for $2,000.00. Apply at News office for owner's name. 154-41p

The Store That Serves You Best

THE BIG DAYLIGHT STORE. SHOP BY MAIL

New York Store

Green Trading Stamps Are Money Savers

WEDNESDAY DOUBLE STAMPS

On Wool Dress Goods, On Corsets, On Muslin Underwear, On Laces and on Kid Gloves

Yard Wide Percales Spec. 10c

New yard wide Percales in light and dark colors, remnant lengths, at 10 cents special per yard

New Silk Petticoats at $1.98

New colored Silk Petticoats in all the new and wanted shades and they are $1.98 dandies at special price of..... $1.98

NEW TODAY SPRING SUITS NEW TODAY

Boy's Bib Overalls Spec. 49c

Boys bib overalls in plain and striped denim, full cut and just the 49 cents thing for the youngster, spec. 49 cents

Yard wide Black Sateen 19c

A very good quality of yard wide black Sateen in a mercerized finish 19 cents at special price per yard

TRADING STAMPS GIVEN [25c] WITH ALL PURCHASES