JUDGE RIDDLE EXPLAINS.

To the Editor of The News:
In your issue of the 1th appears a paragraph stating that I had withdrawn from the contest for the nomination for county judge, and in the same paragraph appears a statement that D. J. Stewart would enter the race in my stead. This statement would lead the reader to think that I had withdrawn from the contest in favor of Mr. Stewart, which would be incorrect. In this connection I wish to say that I had never formally entered the race as you call it, and the publishing a card in your paper announcing my candidacy was not authorized by me at that time and was through a mistake of your publisher. I wish to state now that my reasons for not contesting for the nomination of county judge was not in the interest of either of the candidates, or on account of their candidacy but for the sole reason that I want to relieve Sheriff Quine (who is my son-in-law) from embarrassment in his campaign for re-election.
GEO. W. RIDDLE.
