

"KODAKS" Eastman Photo Supplies, Developing and Printing
For Amateurs. Picture Frames Made To Order. Roseburg Book Company

A. J. LILBURN

FRANK L. LILBURN

A. J. LILBURN & SON

COMPLETE LINE
OF

Furniture, Carpets, Rugs,
Draperies, Chinaware,
Hardware, Stoves, Ranges

IN FACT

Everything Necessary to Furnish the Home

CITY NEWS

Harold Smith has gone to Eugene where he is living with his mother.

Sam Miller, wife and little daughter came up from Dillard this morning.

Just arrived, another car load of genuine Rock Springs coal at Page's.

Charles McGee returned to Myrtle Creek this morning after a few days spent in Roseburg.

Anna Morrison, who is teaching at Carnes, arrived here this morning to spend Sunday with her parents.

Go to J. & J. Restaurant, 137 Sheridan street for 1, X. L. Chicken Tamales and Mexican Chili Con Carne.

Justice of the Peace R. W. Masters and Attorney J. A. Buchanan returned here last evening after a day spent at Glendale.

We have just received a fine lot of English walnut grafted on black walnut roots. We are offering these at very reasonable prices. Roseburg Nursery Co. Phone 152.

Mrs. C. H. Rathbun and son, Bruce, Miss Pulcher, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hatfield left here this morning for Medford where they expect to locate permanently. They

Stetson
Hats

ON display—the new Stetsons for Spring, 1914. The kind of hats you want to wear—

Alert, virile models, appropriate colors, becoming blocks—and a showing of special style features that are distinctively Stetson, in finish, development, appearance.

Good time to buy your Stetson. Assortments fresh, interesting—lines complete—and expert help in making your selection.

Harth's Toggery
Jackson Street

CITY NEWS

Sadie Hornbrook, a local vocal teacher, spent the day at Oakland.

T. J. McCarthy made a flying business trip to Sutherlin yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Tipton returned to Winchester yesterday after a couple of days spent here.

Special Sunday chicken dinner at the J. & J. restaurant on Sheridan street.

R. N. Gates, of Portland, arrived here this morning to look after business matters.

Home cooking served family style, McClallen hotel, 25c; a la carte 35c. Sunday dinner 40c.

Charles White, of Myrtle Creek, arrived here this afternoon to look after business matters.

Mrs. C. L. Ferris, of Central Point, spent last evening in Roseburg with friends.

New map of Douglas County, paper $1.50; cloth $2.00. L. G. Hicks, P. O. Box 477, Roseburg Or. 59-120

Bernice Smith left for Medford this morning after a visit with friends and relatives in this city.

Clarice Asher left for Cottage Grove yesterday where she will spend a few days with friends.

Mrs. James Young, wife of a local barber, has been admitted to Mercy hospital for medical treatment.

Lena Howard left for Junction City this morning where she is spending a few days with her father.

If you place one order with us for wood, you will become one of our permanent customers. Full Measure Wood Yard. North Roseburg. Phone 165.

Mr. Sprague underwent an operation at Mercy hospital yesterday. Drs. Sether & Stewart were in attendance.

If you need wood the Full Measure yard can fill your order with dry oak or fir. Phone 165. North Roseburg.

Frank Bain, of Albany, arrived here this morning to look over the ranch formerly owned by F. E. Alley.

If you need wood the Full Measure yard can fill your order with dry oak or fir. Phone 165. North Roseburg.

Lee Emerson, mayor of West Fork, arrived here this morning to spend a couple of days transacting business matters.

If you need wood the Full Measure yard can fill your order with dry oak or fir. Phone 165. North Roseburg.

E. E. Eastman and wife, of Iowa, who are touring the Pacific coast, stopped over here last evening. They left for the south this morning.

See the wonderful Alaska-Siberian pictures at the Antlers theatre Saturday and Sunday matinee and evening, February 21 and 22. Adults 20c, children 10c.

Miss Helen Hamilton, of Roseburg, returned to her home yesterday afternoon after a short visit at the Kappa Alpha Theta house.—Eugene Register.

F. M. Martin, of La Grande, Ore., and M. H. Payne, of Kansas, arrived here this morning. They are looking over Western Oregon with a view of locating somewhere in this locality.

The March number of the "Ladies Home Journal" is now on sale at the Roseburg Book Store. The front cover illustration is one of those handsome Harrison Fisher pictures.

"Frederick Preston Search played a wonderful program of glorious music," says the Cincinnati Daily Gazette, of July 6. He will play the same program in Roseburg Saturday evening, February 28, at the Presbyterian church.

Hamilton Shriver, of Cantralia, Wash., arrived in Roseburg this morning with a view of remaining here for several weeks. Mr. Shriver is a capitalist and will inspect several timber tracts during his sojourn in this section of the state.

At Pocatello, Idaho, Mr. Search the American cellist, played four recitals in one week. The Tribune reported it "the greatest musical event in the history of Pocatello." Hear him at the Presbyterian church, Saturday evening, February 28.

David Swing Ricker, author and syndicate writer on good roads, and wife will leave tomorrow for California after spending a week here investigating conditions. Mr. Ricker is so pleased with the valley that he will return in July and has ordered an auto for delivery at that time—Medford Tribune.

Fresh roasted coffee at Marshall's.

J. Does went to Sutherlin on business this morning.

Call at Roseburg Nursery Co.'s yards and see the fine lot of fruit trees of all kinds. Also small fruits, shade trees and roses. Corner Oak and Main.

J. R. Hunt left for his home at Oregon City this morning after several weeks spent in Roseburg visiting with his sons.

Patronize the Farmers Public Market Tuesdays and Saturdays. Producers' and consumers' interest. Prices always reasonable.

Mr. Kellogg, a former resident of Camas Valley, arrived here last evening from Dallas to spend a few days with friends and acquaintances.

I desire to announce that as long as there is no public library in this city, which would ruin my business, I will allow all books, except fiction, to be taken from my library, free of charge. ALDON HARNNESS. f25p

William Cobb has returned from Elkton where he spent a few days attending to business matters. Mr. Cobb owns an attractive ranch there and has made a number of improvements of late.

Dr. Hunt, inspector of stallions for the registration board, this morning received the following instructions from the secretary of the stallion registration board: "License for horses 10 years old or over at the date of issuance do not require renewals. All other licenses require renewals on three years from the exact date of issue."

Patronize the Farmers Public Market Tuesdays and Saturdays. Producers' and consumers' interest. Prices always reasonable.

Charles McElhinny underwent an operation for appendicitis at Mercy hospital this morning. Drs. Sether and Stewart were in attendance.

Clark's Kodak and Framing Shop will soon open. See us before buying a camera, or having framing done. Ground floor, 116 Cass street.

Mrs. N. L. Lowen and children left for their old home in Oklahoma this morning where they will spend several months with friends and relatives.

If you place one order with us for wood, you will become one of our permanent customers. Full Measure Wood Yard. North Roseburg. Phone 165.

Box stationery, the remainder of the Graves stock, regular 50c, 60c and 75c boxes, your choice for only 25c and 50 cents worth of S. & H. green trading stamps free with each box, for sale at the Roseburg Book Store.

The Sunday school teachers of Roseburg met at the Baptist church last night and discussed the question of changing the hour of Sunday school from before the church service until afterwards from noon until one o'clock. The discussion was vigorous and earnest, and the teachers at the end of two hours' debate voted that it was their sense that the hour should not be changed. The ballot stood 29 to 20. However, a committee was appointed to investigate the success of one plan over the other. This matter will probably be taken up again. Ladies of the Baptist church served a light lunch after the discussion. The Christian church invited the teach-

MAJESTIC THEATRE

ITS THE PLACE WHERE EVERYBODY GOES.

... SUNDAY...

FIVE-BIG REELS-FIVE

An Elopment at Home

Is an Exciting Comedy

"Little Kaintuck"

He Finds a Friend that is a Friend.

The Vanishing Cracksman

The First Mystery in the Chronicles of Cleek.

"The Blue or Gray"

Proving that Love Knows no Uniform.

'Laundress & Lady'

What Results is Chock Full of Fun.

Dublin Horse Show

Showing Some of the Finest Horses in the World.

5 cents-10 cents

COMING MONDAY AND TUESDAY AFTERNOON

PEG O' THE MOVIES

In Two Reels Serially in the Ladies' World.

WANTED!

Every Lady in Roseburg to Meet Miss Alernathie, Expert Corsetier
MONDAY, FEB. 23, 1914

She will show you all there is to know about

SELECTING FITTING
ADJUSTING

most Important part of women's attire
THE CORSET

Free Demonstrations all Day

You Don't Have To Buy THE LEADER The Very Latest Models

CITY NEWS

Mrs. R. J. Stevens left for Portland this afternoon where she will visit with friends.

A. M. Watson, of Portland, arrived here today to look after business matters.

Patronize the Farmers Public Market Tuesdays and Saturdays. Producers' and consumers' interest. Prices always reasonable.

Charles McElhinny underwent an operation for appendicitis at Mercy hospital this morning. Drs. Sether and Stewart were in attendance.

Clark's Kodak and Framing Shop will soon open. See us before buying a camera, or having framing done. Ground floor, 116 Cass street.

Mrs. N. L. Lowen and children left for their old home in Oklahoma this morning where they will spend several months with friends and relatives.

If you place one order with us for wood, you will become one of our permanent customers. Full Measure Wood Yard. North Roseburg. Phone 165.

Box stationery, the remainder of the Graves stock, regular 50c, 60c and 75c boxes, your choice for only 25c and 50 cents worth of S. & H. green trading stamps free with each box, for sale at the Roseburg Book Store.

The Sunday school teachers of Roseburg met at the Baptist church last night and discussed the question of changing the hour of Sunday school from before the church service until afterwards from noon until one o'clock. The discussion was vigorous and earnest, and the teachers at the end of two hours' debate voted that it was their sense that the hour should not be changed. The ballot stood 29 to 20. However, a committee was appointed to investigate the success of one plan over the other. This matter will probably be taken up again. Ladies of the Baptist church served a light lunch after the discussion. The Christian church invited the teachers to a meeting to be held in their church the last Friday in March.

If you place one order with us for wood, you will become one of our permanent customers. Full Measure Wood Yard. North Roseburg. Phone 165.

See the wonderful Alaska-Siberian pictures at the Antlers theatre Saturday and Sunday matinee and evening, February 21 and 22. Adults 20c, children 10c.

The defendant in the divorce action of Lucy Ambrose vs. C. G. Ambrose this afternoon filed an answer to the complaint in the circuit court. The defendant claims that the plaintiff is an unfit person to have the custody of the minor children. Defendant alleges that she abused him upon numerous occasions, and at one time left his home without just cause or provocation. It is also claimed by the defendant that the plaintiff spent considerable time with a man named Baldwin when she should have been caring for her home and children. In view of the allegations, defendant asks that he be awarded a decree of divorce, together with being made the custodian of the minor children. Attorney W. W. Cardwell appears for the defendant.

Important business to be transacted by the Roseburg fire department on Monday night, February 23. All firemen requested to be present.

J. R. CHAPMAN, President.

MAJESTIC THEATRE

GEORGE KLEINE'S GIGANTIC SPECTACLE

THE LAST DAYS OF POMPEII

A PHOTO DRAMA IN 3 ACTS & 6 PARTS

TUESDAY EVENING AND WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON AND EVENING

ANTLERS THEATRE SATURDAY & SUNDAY February 21st and 22nd

....., The.....
Carnegie Alaska-Siberia Expedition

Motion Pictures with Instructive Lecture

Matinee and Evening Adults 20 cents, Children 10 cents