AMERICAN ART

tion it is expected that the art display will be the most notable. Housed in the Fine Art Palace, one of the best equipped buildings of its kind in Europe, containing 30 galleries for paintings in addition to 50,000 square feet of sculpture, this exhibit will form one of the most representative collections of British and American modern art brought together. Owing to the great value of the art exhibit, any paintings being masterpieces loaned by wealthy American families, the exposition authorities have taken out at Lloyd's a special form of insurance policy which covers possible damage by Mary Richardson or other suffragettes. Among the paintings is Seymour Thomas' official portrait of President Wilson, which next year goes to San Francisco exposition and later will be hung in the White House.

Several international congresses will be held at the exposition during the summer, one of them having been arranged by the Southern Commercial Congress of Washington, D. C. It is planned to have a conference of 100 mayors from the United States with a similar number from Great Britain for the discussion of various problems of commercial municipal government, under the presidency of Sir Vandertart Rowntree, Lord Mayor of London.

GLENGARY ITEMS.

Quite a bit of work is being done on our roads in this community. We fear our grape crop will be short.

We have had a meeting of wonderful interest this last week. Rev. Yarboro did the preaching. The music was led by the organ and organ. We had 11 professions. Rev. Yarboro lectured 19 and about 13 persons will become members of the Roseburg Baptist church as a result of the meetings. Besides a ladies aid was organized, and a Wednesday night prayer meeting. Rev. Yarboro was requested to preach a week at the Roberts Creek school house, three miles above Glengary. He will preach at Glengary again next Sunday at 11 a. m.
