CHILD WELFARE

Conference Comes To a Close Tonight at Washington

PURE FOOD, GOOD ROADS, ARE FACTORS

Roosevelt Expected to Reach Manaus Today—Bribery Case On Trial—Grain Be Standardized—Confederate Memorial Unveiled

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The International Child Welfare Conference will close tonight. Today's entire session was given over to the discussion of the general subject of the relation of the state to child welfare. Judge Ben. B. Lindsey, of Denver fame, was slated for an address, the most comprehensive he has undertaken on the subject of probation and child welfare. Mrs. F. A. Downing, of Denver, reported on the playgrounds movement of the congress.

Following this the United States government's work in behalf of child welfare was reported by various officials of the department of agriculture, the department of labor, the department of the interior and the public health service. Pure foods, good roads, boy and girl clubs, supervision of health, vital statistics, the work of the Children's Bureau and the Bureau of Education was discussed.

"The City's Protection of Children" was the subject for the afternoon session and Bernard J. Newman, secretary of the Philadelphia house commission and Warren Book, of Raleigh, N. C. spoke on prevention of congested districts and child hygiene departments or boards of health.

"Erring and Homeless Children," "Prevention of Delinquency and Child Labor," "Methods of Administration Through Mothers' Pension Laws," were other topics listed for consideration. "Prevention of Delinquency Through Treatment of Juvenile Courts" and "The Probation System" will be subjects of the evening session. The discussion will be led by Judge Johnson, of Media, Penn., and Judge Patterson, of Philadelphia.

Roosevelt Expected at Manaus MANAOS, Brazil, April 27.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt was expected to reach here today when he planned to form a junction with members of the various groups into which his South American expedition was broken up. A great reception has been planned for the former American President's arrival.

Bribery Case Called WASHINGTON, April 27.—United States Prosecutor Wilson expected today to call up the case of Peter G. Thompson, millionaire president of the Champion Coated Paper company of Hamilton, Ohio, charged with offering a bribe to a postoffice inspector.

Interstate Commission Hears Roads WASHINGTON, April 27.—The Interstate Commerce Commission began today hearing arguments in the Eastern Railroads case for five per cent increase in freight rates. This will close proceedings except for inclusion in the record of data sought previously under time limit arrangement, by the commission.

Confederate Memorial Unveiled ARLINGTON, Va., April 27.—The handsome $50,000 memorial monument erected in the Confederate section of Arlington, one of the nation's military burial grounds, today was unveiled and dedicated with solemn and impressive ceremonies. Col. Harvey H. Herbert, secretary of the navy in the second Cleveland administration, headed the organization which made the memorial possible. Some sections of the monument were brought here from Rome.

Grain Hearing Opens WASHINGTON, April 27.—A series of hearings on grain standardization and trading in grain futures opened today before the house agricultural committee. Chairman Lever expected to use the evidence as the basis for bills on both subjects.

Harp Inventor At White House WASHINGTON, April 27.—Melville A. Clark, inventor of the modern harp, is slated to play at the White House today.

"Baby Farms" Probe Resumed CHICAGO, April 27.—The Curran legislative committee, whose disclosures in investigations of alleged "baby farms" and orphanages created a storm of protest in Illinois several months ago, resumed its probe here today with more than 500 witnesses under subpoena. The subpoenas were based upon secret investigations of alleged charitable institutions throughout the state since adjournment of the legislature. Charitable societies are to be subjects of a thorough investigation.

Jack Dillon to Meet Al Norton KANSAS CITY, April 27.—Jack Dillon, of Indianapolis, and Al Norton, the heavyweight of California, tonight are to meet here in a ten-round bout. Norton's manager is Billy McCarty, who was in charge of the fortunes of the late Luther McCarty.

Wilson and Pinchot to Speak COATSVILLE, Pa., April 27.—Secretary of Labor, Wilson and former Chief Forester Gifford Pinchot, today continued their Chatauqua speaking here. Each explained the principles of his respective party, Democracy and Progressivism.

LOOKING GLASS WORKS.

Men, Women and Children Assist in Good Road Work.

LOOKING GLASS, Apr. 25.—Good road day was recognized in this valley in as most enthusiastic manner entitling the energetic settlers to any Carnegie medal or special award obtainable.

From early dawn to the close of day a steady stream of gravel and road material has been placed in the main highway. In the Looking Glass district twelve hundred full wagon loads of sand and gravel have today been added to the road between the postoffice and the junction of West Roseburg at the top of the divide, making it one of the most up-to-date thoroughfares in the county. It is really not to the credit of the present county officials to see such pluck, enthusiasm, perseverance, hard work and loyalty as is and has been exemplified by these hardy settlers in road work go unwarded. It is recognized that this valley while one of the richest and best of Roseburg feeders during the winter and spring season must do the "loop the loop" stunt from the top of the hill to the river in case they have occasion to visit your city and the proposition of a proper appropriation to cover this improvement might well be recognized by your commercial body and toll the death ring of so many mail order enthusiasts.

In today's work in the valley the whole community co-operated. Men, women and children, some 40 families joined hands at the M. E. church where the ladies of the community put up a dinner for the men folk fit for a king, with hard work was the order of the day. The people of this little valley know how to get results and how to entertain.
W. J. CLARKE.

PORTLAND LIVESTOCK MARKET

Receipts for Week Ending Friday at the Stockyards, and Prices Prevailing.

PORTLAND, April 25.—Receipts for the week have been cattle, 1736, calves $6, hogs 3246, sheep 2749.

Cattle receipts fairly heavy this week, market steady. Bulk light steers sold $7.75 to $8.00, with a few grain-fed and baby beef varieties $8.00 to $8.25. Heavy bullocks $7.50 to $7.75. Strong demand for deboned heifers and cows.

Hog market heavy to a shade weaker during the first half of the week, but partially recovered toward the close. Bulk of best light hogs sold from $8.50 to $8.65 with a few loads at $8.70. A good supply of stock hogs at country points, but feed is scarce and growers are not getting their holdings ready for market as easy as usual.

Sheep house receipts light. Lambs sold up to $6.75. Best wool wethers $5.75 and $6.00 featured, but few ewe sales were made. Mutton feeling was just steady with little change, and absence of select quality prevented a satisfactory gauge of the market.
