Message No. 6
 To the Business Men of Roseburg

When a run-down salesman calls on you, do you buy his goods? Aren't you afraid of his line because he looks as if no one ever gave him an order? Same thing is true of a seedy town. To be prosperous we must look prosperous and show local pride. Clean streets, nice stores and well-painted buildings pay because they bring business. Paint-bugny buildings are least excusable, for paint made of and pure linseed oil pays its way by protecting buildings against rot and decay. Let us estimate on your painting job. We have all good painting requisites. Call us up today.

KELLER APPOINTMENT IS HELD ILLEGAL

SALEM, June 3.—That Joe Keller, ex-police captain of Portland, has held the job of parole officer in the state prison illegally for about three months, developed today at the meeting of the state board of control when State Treasurer Kay presented a report from Attorney General Brown that the board would either have to appoint the parole officer or delegate the power to the warden.

Colonel Lawson Sustained.

The opinion had been requested by Governor Withycombe. Some weeks ago Colonel B. K. Lawson was summarily dismissed as warden by the votes of Withycombe and Kay because he refused to appoint Keller when ordered to do so by Withycombe. Then John Bengen was named as warden and he immediately appointed Keller, on Withycombe's orders, and Keller has served since that time. The board of control never authorized the appointment.

Colonel Lawson's contention that he could not legally appoint Keller is fully sustained in the opinion of the attorney general.

All Action Deferred.

When Kay read the attorney general's opinion Secretary of State Olcott moved that the action regarding Keller be postponed until the return of Governor Withycombe, who is in eastern Oregon. This action was taken.

Secretary Goodin of the board then called attention to the fact that under the attorney general's ruling all of those named by Warden Minto since he took charge were in the same fix as Keller. This list includes Deputy Warden Sherwood.

Olcott moved that action regarding the others be deferred, as in Keller's case, until the governor's return.

The opinion means that Governor Withycombe has no more legal authority regarding the state prison than any other member of the board of control, and that in dictating appointments he simply assumed powers he did not possess under the statute.

The opinion refers to the powers and duties of the board of control under the 1913 laws. No law affecting the board was passed by the 1915 legislature.
