WORLD'S CHAMPION BRONCHO RIDER WILL NEVER BE ABLE TO RIDE AGAIN

Dorothy Morrell.

Dorothy Morrell, nineteen-year-old cowgirl, who won the world's championship title for broncho riding during last year's "Frontier Days," at Cheyenne, Wyo., is lying seriously injured in a San Francisco hospital, the result of having been trampled upon by one of the outlaw horses at a wild west show at the Panama-Pacific exposition. The doctors say she will never be able to ride again. In private life Miss Morrell is the wife of "Skeeter Bill," the Wyoming cowboy-poet.
