

"Getting there is one thing. Getting there without trouble is another. If you want to avoid trouble on the journey go on Diamond Squeegee Tread Tires."

—Mister Squeegee

Some people think the importance of their work is gauged by the noise they make.

Other men do big things without bluster or ostentatious effort.

If the noise he makes over it were the true measure of the importance of a man's work, Grant and Dewey would have been dismal failures.

Diamond Squeegee Tread Tires are going right along about their business, giving wonderful road service and justifying the widespread faith in them, without making it necessary to keep up a constant commotion regarding their merits.

If you wish to know how to secure mileage economy and freedom from tire troubles just ask anybody who is using Diamonds. You will not have to look far.

Diamond Squeegee Tread Tires are sold at these "FAIR-LISTED" PRICES:

Size	Diamond Squeegee	Size	Diamond Squeegee
30 x 3	$ 9.45	34 x 4	$20.35
30 x 3 1/2	12.20	36 x 4 1/2	28.70

EMILY STEVENS IN "CORA" AT THE MAJESTIC TONIGHT

Madame Renee, a fallen operatic idol of Paris, comes to America with her daughter, Cora. Madame Renee becomes ill and dies, leaving Cora alone. In the same tenement house lives Maria and her crippled sister, Louisa. Knowing of Cora's destitute circumstances, they take her to live with them. Maria is an artist's model and poses for George Garnier. Garnier, while engaged to Helen, daughter of a socially ambitious mother, does not love her but allows his engagement to be announced. Helen, the artist's fiancée, is really in love with Carl Wilson, young clubman.

Cora tries to get employment at a musical agency, but grief prevents her showing her true voice and falls. Maria takes Cora to pose for Garnier, who falls in love with her and with Cora as model and inspiration, accomplishes more than ever. He neglects Helen for Cora, and Helen's mother comes to reprimand him. Cora overhears the conversation and realizes she has been deceived. Leaving him she begins life anew with an opera company. Death of a prima donna gives her a chance and she becomes famous. Cora returns to the tenement, takes Maria and Louisa with her. Cora, in a struggle with Jose, a no-account, causes the death of Jose, and Cora, Maria and Louisa live happily ever after.

OUR ITALIAN AMBASSADOR AT THE PALACE THEATRE

"The Outcast," a four reel masterpiece by Hon. James Nelson Page, at the present time our ambassador to Italy, will be shown at the Palace for one day only on Thursday, July 22. It is the story of the girl of

DICK TO TRY FOR U. S. SENATE AGAIN

Charles Dick.

Former Senator Dick will be a candidate for the Republican nomination for United States senator in Ohio. It is thought likely this development will necessitate Burton's taking a decided stand either as a candidate for the presidential nomination or for the the slums making her living as a dancing girl in a cabaret where her sweetheart is also employed. One day one of the idlers of the cabaret follows the girl and forces an entrance to her room. Her sweetheart Bob, comes to her rescue and in the struggle the man is shot and Bob disappears. The girl is held for the shooting so Bob gives himself up. She is to be tried before one of the sternest judges, who, under no circumstances believes in extending clemency. Her attorney has obtained a locket with the portrait of her mother, and at the house where the girl's mother lived, he finds a picture of the man, who deserted her years ago. It is that of the judge. During the trial, when the locket is introduced as evidence, and passed to the judge for examination, the latter faints away and is unable to go on with the case. The screen then shown in retrospect, the judge's love affair, and desertion of wife, before the daughter was born. The closing scene shows the old lawyer at his country home, receiving Mae and Bob, on whom another judge has suspended sentence.

Can Uncle Sam Preserve Neutrality? Our foreign relations have been strained almost to the breaking point. The United States has been led down to the very brink of war. The Caribbees of the country have interpreted the spirit of the times, and are recording with their pens this spirited chapter in the nation's history.

CARTOONS MAGAZINE (Published by H. H. Webster, Publisher of Popular Mechanics Magazine) Presents every month the cream of caricature both in America and Europe. It is a veritable panorama of the war. What the nations think of each other is best told by the cartoons which go under the surface and show the very thoughts of the people. Cartoons Magazine is the most fascinating compiled story of world events ever written. The pictorial pages are supplemented by well-selected editorial comment and special articles, invaluable to the library, the business man, the student of current events.
