AN INSANE WORLD.

The telegraph advices from the island republic of Haiti, would indicate that the world passion now convulsing all Europe has reached this out-of-the-way place, and a revolution is waging there in all its fury and terror. A wild mob has overthrown the regular government, murdered the president, and is threatening very one who shows any sympathy with the past administration. This Negro Republic has been the scene of many revolutions and bloody disorders. The inhabitants are almost entirely of African descent, while the language is practically all French. It is known in history and by general repute as being the place where the black man rules over the white. The present revolution and uprising with all its consequent tragedies and possible horrors, will hardly strengthen the contention that the black race is capable of long continued successful self-government.

DON'T GO HUNTING YET.

As it may have been forgotten, or overlooked by many enthusiastic sportsmen, that the game season was changed last year by advancing the season, it may be well to call attention to the fact that this year the season for deer opens on the 15th of the next month, instead of the 1st, as heretofore. While it has been the policy of the game department to give this fact as much publicity as possible, long usage of the earlier date may cause forgetfulness on the part of some, and may disarrange their plans for their annual hunt. So bear in mind that the open season for shooting deer in this state begins on August 15th.

The News has it from the most reliable and authoritative source that should the supreme court uphold the decision of the lower court in the railroad bond case, one of the foremost of the objectors, as well as one of the heaviest taxpayers among them, with withdraw his opposition, and have nothing to do with the talked of suit before the federal court. Out of deference to his wishes, the name of this particular one is withheld, but The News assures the people that this is not given on hearsay, but on the very best authority.

One year ago today, the head lines in the telegraph items did not predict the cataclysm that followed so soon. One from London said "war seems less certain," another from Berlin states "a break between the Kaiser and the Czar seems imminent," while from our own capital at Washington Secretary of State Bryan admitted that the war situation "looked serious". In less than a week after this the declarations of war followed thick and fast and all Europe was ablaze.

If the citizens of the beleaguered Russian city understood English, they might appreciate a pun on the name of their city, when it is suggested that it should be changed from Warsaw to Sawwar.

SEASON FOR HUNTING
DEER OPENS AUGUST 15, NOT NEXT SUNDAY

PORTLAND, July 28.—Notices are being sent out by the state game warden's office that the deer hunting season this year does not open until August 15, which is 15 days later than has been customary for a number of years. Deputy wardens throughout the state are being instructed to give all possible publicity to the change in the opening date. "The purpose is to carry on a campaign of prevention of law violations rather than "make arrests," says F. M. Brown, chief clerk for the state game warden. "We want all hunters to remember the change in dates for deer hunting made by the last legislature so none will plan a trip before the legal season opens. The bag limit is three buck deer with horns in one year and it is lawful to hunt until October 31."

Carl D. Shoemaker, the game warden, is in Canyon City today on his trip of inspection. He has been out one week, having visited southern Oregon and then gone across the Cascade range to Klamath Falls, Burns, Bend and other central Oregon points. He will stop at a number of Columbia river points and also inspect the hatchery at Bonneville.

At all the places visited Mr. Shoemaker held conferences with the deputy game wardens and made plans for a campaign of prevention of unlawful hunting and fishing. He spoke with Chief Clerk Brown over the long distance phone this morning regarding a letter to all the newspapers of the state asking publicity on the change of the season opening for deer hunting.

IF KIDNEYS ACT BAD TAKE SALTS

Says Backache is Sign You Have Been Eating Too Much Meat.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and logy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.

ORDER OF MERIT FOR VON KNEUSSEL

Lieut. Gen. von Kneussel won the Order of Merit for being the first to enter the Przemyśl stronghold with his Bavarian troops. He was a great aid to the Teutons in storming the fortress and probably will continue to be in the campaign in Russia.

so heavily as it was Saturday morning," said Mr. Weckler, "and I have seen her depart many times.

"I don't think that the Eastland should have been allowed to carry more than 1200 passengers, because it did not have enough draft and stability to carry a larger load. Only last Tuesday I told Captain Pedersen that his boat needed trimming as it was constantly traveling on its ears. He said that the twin screws of the ship kept the Eastland on an even keel while under way.

"After his arrest I heard Captain Pedersen say that he tried for several minutes to trim the steamer but could not get water into the ballast tanks fast enough. I don't believe Captain Pedersen realized the danger until the final plunge came."

Mr. Lynn, assistant harbor master testified that he arrived just as the Eastland was due to start. He saw Mountings for Eyeglasses and Spectacles.

They accomplish their purpose without holes or screws

How do they do it? VERY SIMPLE—as tenacious, as constant in their holding power as the principle is simple. Two strong metal tongues are wedged tightly into two slots by means of "EVER-LOCT" Filler. The application makes the grip of an "EVER-LOCT" Mounting stronger by far than the lens itself.

the dangerous list of the steamer and called the police and fire departments, returning to the wharf to see passengers leaping from the decks to the river.

"I believe," said Mr. Lynn, "that the ship was on the bottom aft of midships."

Few Bodies Left.

Efforts to check up the total number of lives lost by the upsetting of the Eastland made no progress today. While the list of missing grew, only three bodies were recovered and divers said that probably not more than a score of victims remained in the ship.

A contract to raise the steamer has been let, and the work will be begun as soon as possible.

According to official lists 324 bodies now have been recovered and identified.

On Hearing "Taps" Played in the Distance

What mournful soul has rent this glorious dawn
With bugle notes of death?
What agony
Of spirit bids him send his psalm out
As if to chorus with those sounds of strife
Across the seas? Is that the cause of this,
His sleeplessness—his bugled
meditation?
We close our eyes and picture
his blanched form
Framed in a window—listless
arm on sill—
Soul-agony in eye and hollow cheek—

Note.—Unfinished because, as the sound drew nearer, the horn was discovered to be a fish horn.

"It's easy enough to be pleasant
When a man has all he requires;
If his heart is all right
His heart will be light
While he's riding on Diamond
Tires."
—Mr. Squeegie

A man is a good deal like a tire.
His greatness depends on the crowd he is in.

The really great man—the leader—literally has to meet all comers in the contest for public approval. Any tire is the best tire in a crowd of inferiors. But nowadays a tire has to be extraordinary if it is to make and hold a record for superior service and mileage economy.

It is the extraordinary quality of Diamond Tires that has given them their deserved pre-eminence. Send for our book of letters from dealers who sold Diamond Tires in 1914.

It tells how more than 99 out of every 100 of the more than half a million Diamond Tires sold last year gave maximum service at minimum mileage cost.

It is yours for the asking.
