

TOM COWLER, NEWEST THING IN HEAVYWEIGHTS, WILL LEFT-JAB HIS WAY TO THE TITLE, SAYS CORBETT.

TOM COWLER, SHOWN IN FIGHTING POSE AND STREET DRESS, IS THE NEWEST HEAVYWEIGHT. JIM CORBETT HAS HIM IN CHARGE AND SAYS HE WILL LEFT-JAB HIS WAY TO THE TITLE. CORBETT SAW COWLER KNOCK OUT THREE HEAVIES IN AUSTRALIA BEFORE BRINGING HIM TO THE UNITED STATES.

HOLBROOK BLINN AND ALICE BRADY IN "THE BOSS"

Michael Regan, "The Boss," is a well studied type—Irish by birth, and transplanted early in youth to the United States. Or he was of immediate Irish descent; it matters little which. The essential point is that Micky, etc.; the manner of his kind, rose to success by his wits, and at his zenith fell in love with a girl, who promised to be his wife (in name only) in order to save her father from ruin. But the girl's people don't like Michael; the girl herself does not act kindly to him; other enemies civil and ecclesiastical, are arrayed against him and then it becomes the contest of a boss against apparently overwhelming odds. In the end, the boss defeats his enemies and wins his wife.

Hornbrook Blinn finds in the part of Michael Regan, one thoroughly well suited to his robustious style.

Alice Brady is the young wife, and she acquits herself with perfect art and skill in a trying but sympathetic role.

This feature will be shown at the Majestic Saturday.

ATTENTION FRUIT GROWERS

The attention of all fruit growers is called to an excellent bulletin just off the Oregon experiment station press on "pruning" with over 70 pages and 50 illustrations prepared by the division of horticulture in cooperation with the department of botany. This bulletin is especially opportune for growers who are soon to commence summer pruning, a practice which is being more generally used and its advantages being more generally appreciated every year. The third chapter on "Pruning Young Trees" by Prof. C. L. Lewis takes up summer pruning in detail and very clearly demonstrates by instructions and figures the best method of pruning under this practice. Other excellent chapters of this bulletin are "Pruning the Bearing Prune Tree" and "Pruning the Bearing Apple and Pear Tree." "The Study of

Fruit Buds and "Plant Physiology as Related to Pruning"

This and other bulletins and circulars issued by the Oregon Agricultural College may be secured free, while the supply lasts, by addressing the Extension Division of the Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Oregon. For the benefit of those growers who are under the impression that they are to receive the bulletins of this station because they are or rather were on the mailing list of the college, it might be stated that this system of distribution is no longer used, and that now by request a monthly college extension circular is sent listing the available bulletins. Where the title of the bulletin does not fully indicate the scope of the publication, a brief description of the contents is given.

Other bulletins which the up-to-date fruit grower should have before the supply is exhausted are No. 123, "How and When to Spray the Orchard" and No. 118, "Handling the Fruit Crop".

WELL KNOWN BUSINESS HOUSE IN YONCALLA CHANGES HANDS

The firm of Beard and Co., who have been so long and favorably known in Yoncalla, have disposed of their interests in the general merchandise business to C. H. Burkholder, of Cottage Grove, who will take possession in a few days. Mr. F. L. Beard has not definitely decided what he will do, but for the present will remain in Yoncalla.

ON THE NIGHT STAGE.

Robert Edeson, the noted actor is starred with Rhea Mitchell and William S. Hart.

Austin, the clergyman, comes to the western town and falls in love with Belle Shields, a girl of the dance halls, only to find that she is the sweetheart of Texas Smith, a notorious outlaw. When he returns to the hotel after escorting Belle home, he finds Texas, taunted by his companions, engaged in a terrific fist fight. Austin goes to his rescue, and in the end saves Texas. This celebrated fight scene was such a realistic and actual affair that after it was over, many of the participants were in the hospital, and others, including Edeson and Hart were so bruised and lame they could hardly hobble about. The parson and his rival then become friends and, despite the fact that Austin and Belle got married, the two remain friends. The young wife visits the neighboring town and is prevailed upon to go to a dance hall there, where "Handsome Jack" Malone imposes his attentions upon her. He writes her a note, insisting on her meeting him that night, when the night stage arrives. She confides in Texas, who rides out to meet Malone. A mask over his face, the road agent stops the stage and takes Malone on a long walk over the desert, telling him never to dare return. As he rides away Malone fires. Swinging about in his saddle, Texas wipes out the debt he owes Austin for saving him that night in the row.

"On the Night Stage" will be shown at the Palace theatre for one day only, Saturday, July 31.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Douglas County.
E. L. Giles, S. C. Miller, George E. Houck, W. L. Cobb, W. S. Hamilton and Thomas Cobb, Plaintiffs, vs.
E. L. Westfall, J. H. Kerr, R. Rauch, J. J. Betts, H. E. Ferchen and J. E. Johnson, Defendants.

To R. Rauch and H. E. Ferchen, two of the defendants above named:

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON, you are hereby required to appear and answer to plaintiff's complaint against you now on file in the above named court and cause on or before the last day of the time prescribed in the order for publication of this summons, to-wit, on or before the 23rd day of August, 1915, said date being the expiration of six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, the time prescribed for publication being once a week for six weeks.

And if you fail so to appear and answer, for want thereof the plaintiffs will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in said complaint, a succinct statement of which is as follows: for a decree of strict foreclosure against you requiring payment of the sum of Nine Hundred ($900.00) Dollars with interest thereon at six per cent per annum from January 6th, 1914, until paid; that said payment be made within thirty days or such reasonable time as may be fixed by the Court, the person entitled thereupon to receive from plaintiffs a deed of conveyance of certain real property in Douglas County, Oregon, described as follows, to-wit:

Lots Four (4) and Five (5) of Block Two (2), Gleggery Fruit Lands, Douglas County, Oregon, as the same appears upon the plat of said lands of record in the office of the County Clerk of said County; also that part of Lot Three (3) in said Gleggery Fruit Lands described as follows: Beginning at the Northeast corner of said Lot 3 and running thence South along the East line of said Lot 3 to the Southeast corner of said Lot, thence Northwesterly along the line of public road to a point in the South line of said Lot 3, 178 feet Northwesterly from the Southeast corner of said Lot, thence Northeast, erly on a direct line to the Northeast corner of said Lot, as required by a written agreement entered into between plaintiffs and J. E. Johnson under date of January 6th, 1912, you having succeeded to some interest or claim under said agreement. And in default of such payment within said time plaintiffs pray that they be adjudged to be the absolute owners of said premises and entitled to immediate possession thereof, and that you and all other defendants above named be adjudged to have no right, title or interest at law or in equity therein, and that all right, title and interest which you have heretofore had or claimed therein be forever barred and foreclosed and that plaintiffs be put into immediate possession of said premises; and plaintiffs pray for general relief.

This Summons is published in the Umpqua Valley News, a newspaper of Roseburg, Douglas County, Oregon, by order of Honorable R. W. Marsters, County Judge of Douglas County, Oregon, made and dated July 10th, 1915. The date of the first publication of this summons is July 12th, 1915, and the date of the last publication hereof is August 23rd, 1915.

U. L. EDDY,
742-a23 Attorney for Plaintiffs.
