The sporting members of The News are in receipt of an invitation from the Rod and Gun Club of Canyon City and John Day, to attend a venison barbecue to be held in the Blue mountains on Canyon creek "where the deer live" on next Tuesday, August 17. The invitation says you can take a seat on the ground and cook a steak from a mule tail deer on a stick over the coals exactly to your own liking. Other refreshments—from the creek. It sounds mighty good, but The News force is saving up for the big 20-buck barbecue to be held at Riddle some days hence.

From private advices received here, it is learned that Rolaid Agee and wife are on their way home from the exposition, where they have been for some time. They are now at Klamath Falls and expect to make a visit to Crater lake, arriving in Roseburg about Sunday.

There will be a regular meeting of the merchants' association this evening at 7:30, at which time various reports will be handed in. J. T. Micklin, of Eugene, will be here and give a talk to the members. A full membership is requested to be present.

A letter received here from Ed. Clark, who spent last winter in Roseburg, states that he is pining for the cool breezes of the Umpqua valley. He has a description of the reception to the Liberty Bell here printed in the local papers, and also some other very roseate views regarding Roseburg that look mighty good when taken from another publication. Ed. is a brother of J. H. and Councilman Clark.

The Baptists last night walloped the Presbyterians by a score of 11 to 3 in six innings. From the grand stand it seemed to be the idea of the Presbyterian players to make more errors than any other man on the team, there being seven errors in one inning before the score keeper lost count. A new pitcher, Roy Goodman, of Oakland, had been imported for the game in the place of Bill Taylor, who is out on account of a split thumb, but the Baptists seemed to take delight in seeing how far they could knock his twist-ers, getting a total of nine clean hits with three strikeouts. Marshall, twirling for the Baptists, allowed six hits, with 11 strikeouts.

FIST FIGHT AMONG CORPSES.

LONDON, July 23.—(By mail.)—How a burly Scott at Givenchy fought a German adversary with bare fists and won was told in a letter received today from the front. The Scott wrote:

"I got my eye on a big German and we had a real duel. The more I thrust at him with my bayonet the more he sparred and grinned at me. We sparred with steel for a half hour, and neither would give in. 'It's no good Scotty,' he said, 'why don't you chuck it.' 'I'm damned if I will,' said I, and we kept on slashing until the bayonets dropped from our hands.

"Then we had a go with the fists, and we fairly walloped each other among the corpses on every side. He got me down but at the finish I got the better of him. I grabbed my bayonet again, but I could not kill him for he was a bit of a sport. He made a good prisoner."

WEALTH SUPPLANTS WEEDS.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 12.—Abandoned and unused ground in Columbus has been made to blossom into wealth for poor folks. A few years ago this land blossomed only with weeds. Under direction of the city recreation department, 350 vacant lots have been planted with garden truck by children, and today this truck is valued at $18,000. Parents of these children assist in many cases, and as a result the cost of living has been reduced materially, for these folks. The vacant land is donated by the various owners.

The Secret of a Good Figure often lies in the braaiers. Hundreds of thousands of women wear the Ben-Jolie Braaiers for the reason that they regard it as necessary as a corset. It supports the bust and back and gives the figure the youthful outline fashion desires.
BEN-JOLIE are the faintest, most serviceable braaiers imaginable. Only the best of material is used—for instance, "Woolon", a flexible fiber of great durability—absolutely rustless—permitting laundering without removal.
They come in all styles, and your local Dry Goods dealer will show them to you on request. If he does not carry them, he can easily get them for you by writing to us. Send for an illustrated booklet showing styles that are so high favor.
