Madame Alma Tracy, the noted concert artist, has taken a temporary suite at the Aldrich home in Edenbower, at which place she expects to give a recital to a select number of guests in the near future. Madame Tracy was reared in Maine, near the home of Mme. Nordica, with whom she was on terms of close intimacy. She has lived a long time abroad and given recitals before many of the crowned heads, and has taken special course in Berlin. She will be glad to have teachers and advanced students visit and consult her.

Are YOU the Farmer who has some surplus land that you are not using which you will trade for a fine residence site in the City of Roseburg. Only ten minutes walk from the center of the city; unsurpassed view; large lot with plenty of room for garden, poultry and cow. Just the place for a family to live if there are children of school age as the Roseburg graded schools offer many advantages. A small cottage can be built now very cheaply owing to the low cost of material and labor. This is YOUR chance to get a nice piece of city property that you can use in exchange for a small part of your farm that you are not using. This city property is valued at $1,000. Owner will trade all or part for cleared farm land you will give in exchange for it. W. H. RICHARDSON, at the Central Pharmacy, Roseburg, Oregon. 909-1f often lies in the brassiere. Hundreds of thousands of women wear the Bien-Jolie brassiere for the reason that they regard it as necessary as a corset. It supports the bust and back and gives the figure the youthful outline fashion desires.

Bien-Jolie are the daintiest, most serviceable garments imaginable. Only the best of materials are used—for instance, "Washol", a flexible boning of great durability—absolutely rustless—permitting laundering without removal.

They come in all styles, and your local Dry Goods dealer will show them to you on request. If they don't carry them, he can easily get them for you by writing to us. Send for an illustrated booklet showing styles that are in high favor.
