CRITICS AND OBSERVERS SPEECHLESS WITH ADMIRATION

Nothing so compellingly epochal has ever been seen in motion pictures, according to a select group of critics, editors, authors, and motion picture men invited recently to see a private exhibition of the five-part Mutual masterpiece "Ghosts," a screen adaptation of Ibsen's unforgettable drama. Those who have schooled themselves in the use of praise and blame found themselves suddenly speechless with admiration. The great genius of the Norwegian dramatist in this picture has been invested with visualized immortality. According to another, the film is greater than the play. All agreed that it is bound to cause limitless discussion. "Ghosts" will be shown at the Palace theatre tomorrow, Saturday on 'v.

Sheriff Quine and Col. J. G. Day left this morning for Olalla in the former's auto. Col. Day is returning home after a few days spent in this city during which time he received an appointment from the county court to attend the O. and C. land grant conference. Sheriff Quine will spend a few days at Olalla hunting.

Are YOU the Farmer who has some surplus land that you are not using which you will trade for a fine residence site in the City of Roseburg. Only ten minutes walk from the center of the city; unsurpassed view; large lot with plenty of room for garden, poultry and cow. Just the place for a family to live if there are children of school age as the Roseburg graded schools offer many advantages. A small cottage can be built now very cheaply owing to the low cost of material and labor. This is YOUR chance to get a nice piece of city property that you can use in exchange for a small part of your farm that you are not using. This city property is valued at $1,000. Owner will trade all or part for cleared farm land you will give in exchange for it. W. H. RICHARDSON, at the Central Pharmacy, Roseburg, Oregon. 969-4f

often lies in the braisiers. Hundreds of thousands of women wear the Bien-Jolie Braisiers for the reason that they regard it as necessary as a corset. It supports the bust and back and gives the figure the youthful outline fashion desires.
BIEN-JOLIE BRASSIERES are the daintiest, most serviceable garments imaginable. Only the best of materials are used—for instance, "Woolon", a flexible bonding of great durability—absolutely rustless—permitting laundering without removal. They come in all styles, and your local Dry Goods dealer will show them to you on request. If he does not carry them, he can easily get them for you by writing to us. Send for an illustrated booklet showing styles that are in high favor.
