We are living in a Christian nation founded by God-fearing men, our Sabbath recognized and protected by law.

The Bible is the foundation upon which moral law is built. Obedience to God is clearly demanded in old and new testament. One seventh of our time belongs to God that we may rest from work and worship Him. Jesus said that works of mercy were lawful on the Sabbath day. Not one passage in all His word gives us any encouragement for selfish pleasure, amusement or gain on that day.

If we lay aside the Bible teaching and take up the question of physical and moral conditions, we find the need of one day in seven for rest. Science has proven that an engine needs periodic rest, it wears longer; no less does the engineer need rest, as it tends to lengthen his life.

The employer today is under temptation to keep the wheels of production in constant motion, discarding the exhausted workman as he would a worn-out piece of machinery, supplying his place with a new one.

A weekly day of rest and worship is a proper subject for legislation and a desirable end to accomplish. Worship cannot be enforced by legislation, but the right to necessary leisure should be secured by well enforced laws.

Observance of a day of rest and worship means a building up of character and intellect, a deeper sense of obligation, a higher sense of duty and honor. A day of worldly amusement, as our Sunday has come to mean, is just the reverse.

We need a national Sunday rest law to protect all laborers and secure influence of government.

We should honor Him who gave us the day by setting aside as much of it as possible, not as little, for Him, and receive the blessing from Him which He promises to those who keep His commandments.

Let us use our influence to create public sentiment along these lines and seek to bring about the closing of places of amusement and business on Sunday, and let us prove that we are working for the betterment of humanity because we love mankind and desire to make it easy for all to be Christian citizens of a Christian nation.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Don't Stay Gray! Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and abundant with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, ready to use, for about 50 cents. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray has disappeared; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and abundant.
