SHERIFF'S SALE OF REAL PROPERTY.

In pursuance of a decree of foreclosure and order of sale rendered in the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Douglas County, on the 21st day of June, 1915, in the suit of J. J. Henderer, plaintiff, vs. Mabel C. Hinkson, A. H. Hinkson, A. H. Hinkson and A. H. Hinkson, administrator of the estate of Edith Hinkson, deceased, for the recovery of $3408.20 with interest thereon at seven per cent per annum from June 21st, 1915, until paid, the further sum of $100.00 as attorneys fees and the sum of $24.25 costs and disbursements, and of an execution upon said decree duly issued out of said court on the 24 day of Sept., 1915, I will expose for sale and sell at public auction as the law directs at the court house door of said County in the city of Roseburg, Ore., on the 5th day of October, 1915, at 10 o'clock a. m., the real property situated in the County of Douglas, and State of Oregon, described in said decree and order of sale as follows, to-wit:

The north half of the Donation Land Claim of Wm. Hancock and wife, being claim No. 45 in sections fifteen, sixteen, twenty-one, and twenty-eight in township twenty-two South of Range seven West of Willamette Meridian in Douglas County, Oregon; also the North half of the South half and lots one, two and three of Section 16 in said township Twenty-two South, Range seven West, containing 593.74 acres more or less, except that part lying and being on the West side of Elk Creek containing 160 acres more or less, the said Elk Creek running through Sections Sixteen and Twenty-one, that part being deeded to A. H. Hinkson.

Said sale will be for cash in hand and will be subject to confirmation by said court.

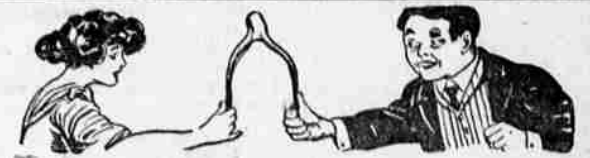

Dated at Roseburg, Oregon, September 4th, 1915.

GEO. K. QUINE, Sheriff of Douglas County, Oregon.

The Secret of a Good Figure often lies in the trousers. Hundreds of thousands of women wear the Ben-Jolie Brassiere for the reason that they regard it as necessary as a corset. It supports the bust and back and gives the figure the youthful outline fashion desires.

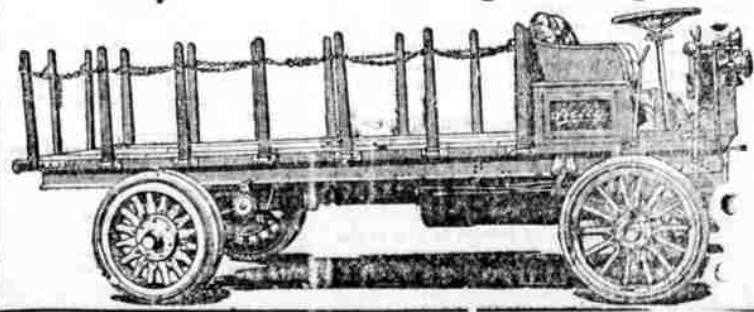

Ben-Jolie Brassieres are the daintiest, most serviceable garments imaginable. Only the best of materials are used—for instance, "Washin", a flexible boning of great durability—absolutely rustless—permitting laundering without removal.

They come in all styles, and your local Dry Goods dealer will show them to you on request. If he does not carry them, he can easily get them for you by writing to us. Send for an illustrated booklet showing styles that are so high favor.
