A rumor was current on the streets last night to the effect that Aviator Barin was to return to this city in about three weeks to make several flights. Upon investigation, however, this was found to be untrue as Mr. Barin is to fly at Salem in a short time and will not return here unless his contract which he has left for consideration for flights next year is taken up.

A deal was consummated today in which E. P. Williams disposed of the confectionery store located on North Jackson street to M. C. Bursleson. A new stock will be laid in and the business conducted in the same satisfactory manner as before.

F. A. Pierce, of Days Creek, owner of the champion Angora buck, "Dodo," is in the city today, and states that he will leave early in October for San Francisco where he will have some of his flock on exhibition. "Dodo" is 29 months old and his fleece is 39 inches long hanging 23 inches below his feet. He said the present world's champion had a fleece of 32 inches long and is three years, seven months old. Mr. Pierce estimates that he will get between three and four hundred dollars for the fleece now carried by "Dodo," according to the way he has sold previous cuttings from his flock, the price ranging from two dollars up to as high as $20 per pound, regulated by the length.

Word was received today that Bruce Evans, the evangelist, will arrive in Roseburg Saturday, October 2, ready for the revival campaign to begin at the Baptist church on Sunday, the 3rd.

Merline Pearson, a little six-year-old youngster, showed his quickness of mind today when he noticed a blaze coming out of a garbage barrel in the lot of a neighbor. He ran to the house and told the people there of the fire, which by this time was blazing quite fiercely, threatening a woodhouse near which it stood, as well as other houses close together. A garden hose was then attached to a small water plug and the blaze extinguished. A hot fire might have been started had it not been for his thoughtfulness.

Fashion Fetes in the Name of Charity

Newport is the setting for some of these bazaars. Here on the spacious lawns of country homes, mannequins display the very latest modes from Paris vying in smartness with the women who come to see them. There are tableaux and grand promenades and best of all you can sip tea and view them with a conscience free from guilt, for your entrance fee goes to sweet charity.

The latter part of this week the bazaar of the season was held at the home of one of the leaders of the Newport set. In artistical tableaux, backed by Grecian summer houses, all the summer modes were reviewed and predictions made for the coming season.
