The home of Mrs. S. J. Henry, in North Roseburg was the scene of a most enjoyable gathering this afternoon when a number of ladies gathered to pay their respects and offer well-wishes to Mrs. Henry's mother, Mrs. Cottrell, upon her 88th birthday. The time was spent in diversified amusements, not the least of which was a number of musical selections by Mrs. Henry, she being a very accomplished pianist. The guests departed wishing their hostess many returns of the day, and as she is exceptionally well and strong for one of her age, have reason to believe that their hopes will be realized.

A PERFECT PROGRAM.

This one has the merit of being true, anyhow: The official pessimist of a small western city, a gentleman who had wrestled with chronic dyspepsia for years, stood in front of the postoffice as the noon whistle sounded. "Twelve o'clock, eh?" he said, half to himself and half to an acquaintance. "Well, I'm going home to dinner. If dinner ain't ready I'm going to raise hell, and if it is ready I ain't going to eat a bite."

On account of today being a Jewish holiday, Yom Kippur, or the "Day of Atonement," the store owned by Simon Care was closed. A number of other Jewish families of the city are also observing the day which is the most holy day observed by the followers of Judaism.

BAND CONCERTS MUCH ENJOYED

One of the features of the evenings during the Douglas county fair has been the free band concerts given by the Moose band. The band was organized only a short time ago under the excellent leadership of Wm. H. McLoughlin, whose ability as a leader has been demonstrated in the manner in which he has drilled the band to its present efficiency. Large crowds have been present each evening and their appreciation was expressed by the rounds of applause which followed each selection.
