GAY SOCIAL SEASON FOR WASHINGTON

Officials to Greet New Mistress of White House.

PAN-AMERICAN DELEGATES ENTERTAINED

Many State Functions Scheduled for Balance of the Season, Tact Necessary in the Selection of the Many Guests.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—Official Washington tonight is to greet the new mistress of the White House for the first time in her social capacity as first lady of the land. President and Mrs. Wilson will entertain the delegates to the Pan-American congress and their wives at a huge reception in the executive mansion. It will be the formal opening of the social season at the White House.

The reception in many ways will be unique. It will be the first formal event of its kind that has been held in the mansion for two years; all customary events being put aside last winter by the death of the president's first wife. Also, the reception will introduce not only Mrs. Wilson, but a number of new faces in the reception line.

For the first time Mrs. Lansing will be there as the wife of the secretary of state. At the last reception in the White House, Mrs. Bryan held this position. The appointment of Attorney General Gregory to fill the vacancy caused when Attorney General McReynolds resigned to accept a place on the supreme bench will result in that department being represented for the first time by a cabinet wife. Mr. McReynolds is a bachelor.

During the reception the marine band will play and refreshments will be served in the state dining room.

On January 11, the president and Mrs. Wilson will entertain the members of the cabinet and their wives at dinner in the White House and from then on the executive mansion will be the scene of regular state functions.

The January 11 dinner will be the first diplomatic dinner at which Ambassador Jusserand, the French representative in this country and dean of the diplomatic corps, will be the honored guest. There will be present at this dinner ambassadors representing the entente powers and certain of the neutrals. January 25 will be the date for the dinner at which Count von Bernstorff, German ambassador and ranking second to Jusserand in the diplomatic corps, will be the guest of honor, together with ambassadors from the central powers and certain neutrals. The judicial reception will be on February 4, supreme court dinner, February 8; congressional reception, February 18; speaker's dinner, February 22; and the army and navy reception, March 3.

INDIANA POLITICS BEGIN TO WARM UP

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 7.—This is the last day on which candidates for governor, U. S. senator, president and vice-president can file petitions asking that their names be placed on the ballot for the primary March 7. Few eleventh hour petitions were expected. With the direct primary just sixty days off, republicans predicted a hot fight between Harry S. New and James Watson for the republican nomination for U. S. senator, with Arthur R. Robinson trailing. John Worth Kern was the unopposed choice of the democrats for re-election.

John A. M. Adair is one of the leading aspirants of the democrats for the gubernatorial nomination. Adair is a congressman. He is opposed by dry democrats because of his vote against national prohibition. Among the republican candidates for governor are James P. Goodrich, former national chairman of the party; T. McCray, of Kentland; Mayor R. O. Johnson, of Gary, and Quincy
